A COLLECT FOR CLUB WOMEN

(All Standing)

Keep us, oh God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face—without self-pity and without prejudice. May we be never hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward, and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are as one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all, and, oh, Lord God, let us forget not, to be kind!

—Mary Stewart.

CLUB LITANY

By Alice Ames Winter

Leader: God, our Creator, our Father and our Friend from many homes, and with many minds we come together this day bound each to each as children of Thy Wisdom, Thy Love, Thy Will.

Response: May day unto day utter speech and night unto night show knowledge.

Leader: May the Spirit of the Lord rest upon us, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and right, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord.

Response: Of us may it be said: "In her tongue is the law of kindness; she looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed saying, 'Many daughters have done excellently, but thou excellest them all'."

Leader: Here may mercy and truth meet together, righteousness and peace kiss each other.

Response: So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Leader: Here shall we stand in the ways and ask where is the good way, that we may walk therein.

Response: Behind Thy Wisdom and Thy Counsel lieth thy love.

Leader: Though we have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge and though we have all faith so that we could remove mountains, and have not love, we are nothing.

Response: Wilt Thou here light a candle of understanding in our hearts that shall not be put out?

Leader: Teach us that we cannot truly pray Thy Prayer without a pledge that we will fulfill the human part of bringing to pass Thy Will, and Thy Kingdom here on Earth.

All: Our Father who art in Heaven—

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT-DIRECTOR

Dear Indiana Club Women:

At the close of the French Lick convention it was my pleasure to assume the office of General Federation Director for Indiana. It was voted several years ago to combine the office of President and Director in 1942 and as I take up these additional duties I am deeply aware of my responsibility to you and to the General Federation.

As we start this year together there is only one thought in our minds—the winning of the war. There is no uncertainty any longer. The clarification has come. We now know that the world struggle is our struggle. Total war requires total effort on the part of all of us.

The cry of the moment is production—and more production. Pearl Harbor caught us unawares but we are not asleep any longer. We now have unity of purpose. What can we do to help the battle of production? One thing we can do is to maintain the morale of the home so that those who are actively engaged can do their work to the very best of their ability. We, as women, are responsible for the morale of the home and the morale of the home is going to win this war. A nation is lost if it has lost its spirit. It is up to us, as mothers, as homemakers, as molders of public opinion, to radiate the proper spirit in everything we say and do.

Our enemies started this war against us because they believed that they could win. For many years they had devoted their energies to that one purpose. We know now that we must create a superiority of arms if we are to win. To this end we must sacrifice everything.

The objectives of the General Federation: The preservation of our representative form of government; Return to religion and National defense, are our objectives. They are more timely and more important than they were a year ago.

I know that Indiana club women will do their share, and more than their share, to protect the United States of America.

We go forward with this slogan—WE WILL WIN!

Faithfully,

Mildred Carlson Ahlgren

MRS. OSCAR A. AHLGREN
I. F. C. President

GREETINGS TO INDIANA CLUB WOMEN

By MRS. FELIX T. McWHIRTER, Honorary President

In these times of unprecedented stress and strain and change, it is indeed a great and rare privilege for any American federated club woman to be linked through her small home club to the other fine likeminded federated clubwomen of the world. If one belongs to a universally federated club (dues only 50c per capita), she is represented in the county federation which in turn is part of the district federation which helps to form the state federation with its representation of outstanding women in all parts of Indiana.

Through this connection each federated club woman is identified also with the nation's most outstanding women in activities relating to the advancement of the home, the school, the church and state. Federated clubwomen everywhere are counted on for leadership in every movement for community betterment or state or national progress. Just now large responsibilities rest upon federated clubwomen in the total war effort. Universally federated clubs and their individual members are a part of the great world-wide women's organization,—the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Of the 50 cents dues, just one dime reaches the G. F. W. C. and entitles members to all helps, plans, literature and privileges offered by this vast organization of more than 2,000,000 women.

In looking toward a new club year, it is my hope that each federated club will make it a special project to show the way of federation to non-federated clubs of the community, convincing them of the desirability and opportunity of joining with federated clubwomen for an enlarged vision, and privilege of working with and for other women of the nation and the world. Clubs which have caught the vision and have the understanding of the meaning and spirit of federation can do much to win non-federated clubs of their own communities. It is my hope that clubs will serve where they are, and will persuade non-federated clubs, or those identified only with the county or district federations, that now is the time to raise their sights and look farther to a widened horizon encompassing the state, the nation and the world-wide view. Universal federation gives a club and its members, greater perspective, knowledge and vision. Extend an invitation to non-federated clubs to join the General Federation of Women's Clubs which has proven its worth for more than half a century!

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT OF GENERAL FEDERATION

Dear Club Women of Indiana:

In my acceptance speech, three objectives were presented—the preservation of our representative form of government, the return to religion and national defense. At that time many of our people were reluctant about supporting a defense program. They believed that it was Europe's war, that two oceans protected us and that nothing would happen here. However, the delegates assembled in Atlantic City endorsed a resolution approving a national defense program for this country, and from that time until the present moment, every program, speech and activity of the General Federation of Women's Clubs has been devoted to the defense effort.

I am sure that you are anxious to know what projects will be emphasized during the coming year. Of course, our War Service program will predominate.

If I were asked what is the most immediate need, I would say production and more production. Every one of our two million members can help. To do this, a reduction in non-defense spending must be effected. Such a procedure is necessary if we are to keep production moving ahead and if we are to prevent an inflationary period.

We must avoid serious labor disputes, yet we do not want to coddle labor. Our women should learn something of labor conditions in their own communities.

The real question before us is not whether labor is working a forty hour week, but whether labor is to be paid time and a half for overtime and whether the pernicious procedure of compelling men to pay large initiation fees to labor unions in order to get a job is to be continued. The most effective way to register your opinion is to write to your own congressmen.

The second most immediate need is to develop Western Hemisphere solidarity.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

There are very good reasons why we should have Western Hemisphere solidarity. The Americas cannot defend themselves alone—they must act together.

Hitler covets parts of Latin America and Latin America would be the logical base for an attack by the Nazis on the United States.

It would be a great mistake for the Americas to ignore their common destiny and not utilize their great power to keep those who aspire to world domination away from our shores.

Propaganda of an intensity heretofore unknown has developed in Latin America. The agents of Hitler, whose mission it is to put into practice the method used in Holland, Belgium, Norway, Austria and France are at work spreading the Nazi ideologies.

A power that aspires to world domination, unprecedented in history, has loosed its unrelenting fury upon the world. The situation is grave—this is a dramatic hour for this Hemisphere and I beg of you as representatives of the largest and most influential group of women in the world to assist in carrying on an aggressive program in an attempt to solidify the thinking of the people of this Hemisphere.

Much must be done by the people in our United States. We have been selfish, we have lost valuable time. We have talked about Western Hemisphere solidarity in an academic way, but we haven't proved to our great neighbors that we are sincere.

We have unlimited power for the development of public opinion for those accomplishments we desire. Let us arouse our people so that they will not think in terms of these United States—but in terms of our great Western Hemisphere. I am counting on you and I know that you fully realize the urgent need and will not disregard this appeal.

Sincerely yours,

SARA A. WHITEHURST.

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

During the year in which it was my privilege to serve you as Director, war descended upon our nation with shock and fury. Few of us will forget December 7th in 1941, with the resultant changes that have followed its wake in our lives. Before that date our thoughts were concerned, and then only in part, with measures strengthening the defenses of our country. The tempo of that strengthening process was speeded up immediately. In January, the Board meeting of the General Federation was devoted entirely to a well considered survey of the forces of our government and the resources of our people and our industries. The convention in April was devoted to the ways by which a stronger sense of unity might be fostered and developed among the nations of this western hemisphere. Our subsequent trip into Mexico showed us more clearly the ways by which we could put our precepts into practice.

This is the only "formal" message which I shall give you as your Director. It is not one of retrospect in things accomplished, but rather of thoughts concerning the future of our country and its people as they have come to us through the conferences and meetings of the General Federation. Within the year, our country has swerved from peacetime pursuit into actual war with other nations of the world. We are one of the United Nations, fighting to preserve our way of life against the real rights of opposing ideals. And we must do our full part to make that term "United Nations" a reality, not just two words. Let us remember that Noah was bidden to take two of every living thing into the Ark, some of them natural enemies. We may not be fond of our allies personally, but we must join them to survive.

The world is at war. Civil life is in the midst of a gigantic upheaval. It is up to the women of the nation to avoid extremes of emotionalism, and to do our part as sanely as possible. You and I are citizens of the United States. So are the members of our families. Are we being intelligent citizens, or have we weakly allowed such convictions as we held to become restricting prejudices?

Are we physically fit, able to resist illness and disease? Have we done our full part, as home-makers, to minister to the needs of our family in building up their health state to a high degree of efficiency? Have we trained ourselves and built up a large reservoir of usefulness? Have we enough personal courage and fearlessness to cover up the quiver of our heart when sudden shocks come to us or our family? Have we developed in our natures a friendliness so badly needed today, or do we go our ways unconscious of our neighbors, their problems or their needs? Above all, have we a strong faith in our hearts, faith in the Living God, to become the lodestone of our lives? Or is our

MRS. GEORGE W. JAQUA
G. F. W. C. Director

religion like a cloak, to put on or remove as the occasion and the need indicate? Our first reaction to this last question is indignant denial. But stop and think for a moment. Do you really LIVE your religion seven days a week? What kind is it, active or passive? Is it a comfortable kind to have or does it challenge you to unreachd goals? When we UNDERSTAND the figures that only about 50% of our peoples belong to a church, and that of that number only about 35% ever attend church service, we are brought abruptly to the question "Are we really a Christian nation?" Take a bit of time and think it over.

Nor are our democracy's problems all military ones, or even semi-military. They are plain everyday problems, sometimes, like housing and employment discrimination, health and nutrition; things like civil liberties without which we would have no freedom; things like helping our peoples to live securely together, without suspicion or hatred or distrust; things like making Americans to be better Americans, like helping ourselves to remember the pioneer traits of friendship and courtesy and hospitality and self-respect. These things make democratic America worthwhile. They are the things that will demand sacrifice from all, things that will require strength and determination to preserve.

We are all thinking today about a great many things which we have taken for granted. That phase of our American way of life which we have always considered so casually has assumed greater significance for us now. With the people of other nations existing in virtual slavery, with our men, and women, using their strength in fighting against such a fate, our accustomed way of life takes on added meaning for everyone in these United States. In thinking realistically, we must use our efforts to build such a barrier that will not permit our enemies, without or within, to breed doubt and disunity among our people. Must we wait until it comes to our own individual doorstep before we awake to the real seriousness of the conditions we face? It is so important that our energies are not deflected or deflated through lack of understanding of the formidable strength and cleverness we are up against.

We will win this war. We must win this war. But sincere as we think ourselves to be in the efforts we put forth, it will be impossible for us to win it in our present state of mind. The "war effort" is still a sideline to our regular business activities. It is not close to us yet, and we, as individuals, have not dedicated and consecrated ourselves to the real job ahead. It is no excuse to say that those in high places have not done so either. You and I are breaking our own faith with the men we have sent to service for their country if we do not do everything we possibly can to secure a successful conclusion to this war. We do not yet have the right attitude of mind today, but we can develop it if we are sincere about it.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

We must come to realize our danger. This is a war of civilians as well as of military forces. And women have a large part to fill in it. While trained and skilled women will be called to special services, there are so many things women can do on the home front.

You can stop wailing and complaining of this and that restriction, and why this and why not that. You will have to do your part in creating national unity. This means laying aside many of the little private dislikes and prejudices which are not helpful at any time, but positively criminal in time of war and crisis. You must practice some of that democracy we have long been talking about.

Our country, that has stood for such wonderful ideals and precepts, is divided this way and that by emotion and disagreement on modes and methods. Yet, in each of us lie the principles of a free democracy for which we should be willing to make a great degree of sacrifice and which we should make an "all out" effort to really put into practice. Our individual attitude, yours and mine, and the degree to which we really cooperate in this war effort, will play far larger part in the successful outcome than perhaps we realize today. It has so been shown in other countries than our own.

As Rudyard Kipling phrased it, "No, not combatants, only details guarding the line." That is what you and I are. The line, the home line, has to be guarded. Failure on the line is as fatal as failure on the battlefield. That is our task, yours and mine. Being members of the largest and greatest group of organized women, we will be given many helpful suggestions as to how best we can make strong the line. To be a part of the GFWC is to be well armed, well trained for the place we are to fill and the contribution we can make toward the winning of the war, and the establishment of a just peace to follow.

Today there is only one goal—the winning of the war we did not want and did not seek; the restoration of the peace we all desire. No one wants war, but its gauntlet has been flung in our faces. We now are more conscious of the dimensions of the task ahead, and we go to meet it with a resolve to succeed, a united people. God willing, and every man and woman doing his duty, we shall be successful.

Faithfully yours,

Evelyn H. Jaqua.

UNLESS THEY BUILD

*The goals I sought to reach were soul of me—
Lodestars above the path of heart's desire.
They were not separate from Deity,
But rather were they fanned by holy fire
To a bright burning passion for my feet,
My hands, my lips, my dreams, my will to do,
Without which all my plans were incomplete—
The urge to strive—the will to follow through.*

*How still, at times, each ivory tower lies!
How far the goals of all that beauty dreamed!
Unless they build, for whom we sought the prize,
We shall have lost the glow of all that seemed—
The shaft that pivots on the heights above—
The arc that crowns the pyramid of love.*

*Unless they build! Keenly arresting phrase!
They who come after keep the flame alight,
Just as were borrowed from ancestral days
The beauties Time had salvaged in his flight.
The splendor of a cycle that is run,
The glory of an era yet to be,
The ardor of a present task begun,
Bridge in the structure for eternity.*

*Long, long ago the shining chain was wrought
From patient wisdom of a ceaseless age.
It was a tall, young carpenter who brought
The flame, full-burning, to our heritage;
Summoned to chaos and a war-torn past
A sheer perfection that shall time outlast.*

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

June 1941—June 1942

MRS. OSCAR A. AHLGREN, Whiting

To give a complete report of work accomplished during the past year is impossible. There was some uncertainty in our hearts as we began our work together in June 1941 but we made our plans and as every president invariably has, we had great hopes for our administration. Then came that afternoon of December 7, that never to be forgotten afternoon. Many of our plans have been shattered for we know now that there is only one problem before us and that is to come out of this war victorious.

One of the first moves was to appoint a quick news chairman. Mrs. Rudolph Grosskopf of Indianapolis has constantly kept the I. F. C. before the public during the past year. So many of our accomplishments have never been reported that we decided that the state of Indiana would know the Indiana Federation of Clubs during this year. This has been done to the extent that other organizations have asked the press why the I. F. C. was getting so much publicity and the press has replied, "Because they are doing things." All credit goes to Mrs. Grosskopf who has done a magnificent piece of work.

We have helped clubs by assuming the payment of the 5 cent increase in dues to the GFWC. This has been taken care of by the special five cent fund in the I. F. C. treasury and the state will assume that obligation again this year.

The I. F. C. has helped with the procurement of Flying Cadets in Indiana. One of our Juniors christened the Flying Cadet airplane and many cadets have been secured through our efforts. We are so very sorry to hear that Col. Corkhill, who spoke at so many of our meetings, is reported missing in the Philippines.

Immediately following the Golden Jubilee convention of the GFWC in Atlantic City we called a meeting in Indianapolis and over 150 chairmen responded even though the thermometer was over 100. We outlined the GFWC national defense program and appointments were made. A month later a similar meeting was held, with an excellent attendance, and members of the Indiana Civilian Defense committee spoke. We are proud that Mrs. George W. Jaqua, our retiring director, is a member of the Civilian Defense Council.

We are proud of our efforts in assisting in the preservation of the Cox Woods in southern Indiana. This virgin timber was almost lost to commercial interests when public spirited citizens of Indiana came to the rescue and the woods will now be a national forest.

Our third program booklet appeared early in July. This project is especially dear to our heart in that we were responsible for the first two, but the third was the best ever due to our first vice-president, Mrs. W. H. Lykins, who was responsible for its compilation and publication.

The Latin American Fellowship, planned during the administration of Mrs. Jaqua, became a reality this year when I. F. C. brought Miss Elza Marques of Brazil to Indiana University and sent Miss Lenore Morgan of Bloomington, Ind., to study at the University of Mexico.

We have a new cover and several new features in our magazine. From the many letters received, both from Indiana women and club women in other states, commending our magazine, we have a right to be justly proud. Our editor, Mrs. Nettie Downey, deserves all our praises. Mrs. Downey has given up many opportunities which have come to her in order to remain our editor.

Through the efforts of our very able art chairman, Mrs. Walter S. Grow, the I. F. C. presented a painting, "Bunnies and the Beast," by the late Renee Barnes, to the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital For Crippled Children in Indianapolis. We are grateful to Mr. Barnes for giving us this beautiful painting. A public presentation was made with the Honorable Henry F. Schricker, Governor of Indiana, as the speaker.

Our attendance at the thirteen district conventions was one of the most pleasant experiences of the year. Mrs. W. H. Lykins, first vice-president, had her opportunity to speak at the conventions this year. We spoke at all the conventions upon the subject, "The Time Has Come."

In November we held three political science forums—Manchester College, Indiana University at Bloomington, and Indiana University Extension at East Chicago. There was an attendance of 800 at the forums. We invited the Indiana League of Women Voters, the Indiana Congress of Parents and Teachers, the Indiana Business and Professional Women to co-operate with us. These forums, due to the efforts of Mrs. George L. Russell, American Citizenship chairman, and Mrs. W. D. Keenan, forum chairman, were most successful. Mrs. Jefferson Atwood, GFWC American Citizenship chairman, commended Indiana for these forums at the Washington board meeting.

Also in November we had the presentation of the plaque, "The Spirit of America," by Viquesney. The placing of this plaque in the Indiana State House was made possible through the contributions of the districts. Mrs. George L. Russell, American Citizenship chairman, who was responsible for this fine project, presided at the presentation; Governor Schricker was the speaker and Mrs. Felix T. McWhirter, our beloved honorary president, unveiled the plaque. The presentation was broadcast over radio station WIRE.

We have co-operated with the Kiwanis, Lions, Rotarians, and Junior Chamber of Commerce in the preparation of a citizenship program. Mrs. Russell has represented the federation at these meetings and the other organizations have been loud in praise of her contribution.

Through the musical penny fund we were able to purchase seven season tickets to the Indianapolis Symphony concerts and these were given to worthy music students throughout the state.

Our Hoosier Salon luncheon was a gala occasion when Mrs. Walter S. Grow, our art chairman, again covered herself with glory. We were delighted to give two purchase prizes of $150 each to the Salon. These were won by Randolph Coats for his "Isolation," a snow scene, and George Mock for his, "November Afternoon," a Brown County scene. These paintings were added to our traveling exhibit with a number of etchings all purchased with our penny art fund.

The annual citizenship day celebration in Terre Haute, sponsored by the Terre Haute Woman's Club, was attended by your president. It was inspiring to see these young men and women, who had come of age during the year, as they listened to the fine address of Governor Schricker.

One of the highlights of the year was attending the Washington Board meeting. Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, GFWC president, had arranged a magnificent National Defense forum, with the majority of the leaders of our government in Washington taking part. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt presided at one of the sessions.

Through the efforts of our fine conservation chairman, Mrs. T. Eugene Bailey, a kiosk was erected at our Virginia Claypool Meredith forest in southern Indiana. The marker erected at the time of the dedication of the forest several years ago was wather beaten and we are deeply appreciative to Mrs. Bailey for securing this permanent memorial marker for us.

A joy, never to be forgotten, was to serve as Carol Lombard's escort the day she was in Indiana. Over two million dollars worth of war stamps and bonds were sold that day. Carol Lombard, born in Fort Wayne, was a typical Hoosier—friendly, charming, talented. We will never forget her as she said, "Good-bye, Mildred, it's been a swell day."

Our own January Advisory board meeting was well attended

in spite of icy roads. Speakers were Rabbi Maurice Goldblatt, who discussed, "The Home and The Church in the Defense Program;" Mrs. Edwin I. Poston, Chairman of the American Home Department, GFWC, who had as her subject, "The Place of Religion in Our Modern Life;" Dr. C. T. Malan, Superintendent of Public Instruction, who had as his subject, "The Schools in the Defense Program," and your president who spoke on the subject, "Forward to Victory." During the luncheon hour Mrs. Hariette K. Sparks and Miss Kathryn Pickett of the Indianapolis Star presented the Star Program Building prizes. In the afternoon reports were given of the Washington National Defense forum by those who attended; Mrs. W. H. Lykins and Mrs. Walter C. Allen conducted on "Information Please," program; and Mrs. George W. Jaqua, chairman of the War Service department presented her chairmen in a forum.

Your president has spoken at many individual club meetings, too many to mention. A few highlights were: the presentation of the iron lung by the LaPorte county federation; Girls' State, sponsored by the Indiana Department of the American Legion Auxiliary; a National Defense meeting sponsored by the Fort Wayne Chamber of Commerce; the Chicagoland music festival luncheon; the Indianapolis Business and Professional Women's Club; the 38th annual convention of the Indiana Federation of Colored Women's Clubs; the Honeywell Art Festival; Bethany Park and Winona Lake Federation meetings. Many radio talks have been given.

Attending GFWC conventions has always been a pleasure but a never to be forgotten experience was to go as your president. The convention at Fort Worth with its "Western Hemisphere Solidarity" theme was most stimulating. It was a joy to serve as aide to Mrs. Whitehurst. We were proud of our Indiana women who took part—Mrs. Poston, Chairman of the American Home Department; Mrs. Fred B. Bell, GFWC E. O. S. chairman; Mrs. Walter S. Grow, who spoke at the Fine Arts dinner. We were proud to have our second vice president, Mrs. Walter C. Allen, presented with a $25 prize for procurement of new clubs.

To travel to Mexico with Mrs. Jaqua on the post convention tour was a perfect delight. The forums with the Mexican women, the many lovely courtesies extended to us, and the beautiful country will be a happy memory.

Our own convention at French Lick I need not mention. The many, many fine letters I have received from you tell me what you thought of it. I can only say that because of your splendid co-operation in every way I was the happiest person and enjoyed the convention the most of anyone present. I will never forget the many fine things you did for me.

A number of signal honors have come to me since I have been your president. These include: appointed by Governor Schricker as the one woman member of the Indiana State Planning board; appointed Associate Administrator of the Indiana War Savings Staff in charge of the women's division; member Indiana State Salvage committee; member Advisory Council, Indiana State Civic League; member Governor Schricker's Advisory Health Committee; member state council of National Citizenship Education; member highways committee, Indiana State Traffic Council; member Advisory Council Better Homes in America; member Resolutions committee, GFWC, and made honorary life director of the Whiting Woman's Club.

Plans are under way to entertain the GFWC convention in Indiana the week of May 10, 1943, and we only hope that war conditions will not prevent our having the convention which we have hoped to have for such a long time.

If we only had space to tell you of the many fine war projects of Indiana clubs—they are doing their share and more than their share in all fields. The IFC has been completely geared to the war program and any other projects we have had in mind for our administration have been set aside.

We started our program to interest women in good government and we have three women candidates for the legislature that we know of—Mrs. Frederick G. Balz and Mrs. Brandt Downey of Indianapolis and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Boonville.

This has been a detailed report but as I did not give it at the state convention I felt that it had to be given here. You will never know the joy it has been to be your president. The executive board has anticipated my every wish. Each and every club woman has given me her complete support.

It is with the greatest of confidence and love for Indiana club women that I begin my second year as your war president. Alone I can do nothing but together we can accomplish anything we set out to do. The winning of the war is the most important task at hand—forward we go—forward to victory!

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

REPORT OF OFFICERS

FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT

MRS. W. H. LYKINS, Covington

It has been a pleasure and an especial privilege to serve as first vice-president and dean of departments of the Indiana Federation of Clubs during the past year. For most club women this has been the most important year in their federation life. Particularly has this been true for those whose especial concern was the work of the departments. The federation has been united in one great objective—national defense—and each department, division and committee has centered its program around that goal. Programs and work for a return to religion and for the preservation of our representative form of government have been a vital part of the defense of America. The department of National Defense with its fourteen committees has been set up in the state, and the organization completed in the districts and most of the counties.

The plans of the chairmen were presented in the Department Booklet which we issued this year for the third time. In July, 1600 copies of the booklet were sent to state officers, district, county and club presidents, district first vice-presidents, state and district department, division and special committee chairmen. During the year a copy has been sent to the president of each newly federated club. The book which began as an experiment has become a necessity. It has been much in demand during the past year.

Many requests for club program suggestions have come to me this spring, showing that women are realizing the importance of their club work for the coming year.

Department chairmen have presented excellent program material in the Clubwoman Magazine. The copy for this I have edited and sent to Mrs. Downey. I have also prepared my own page each month. It is a constant inspiration to work with Mrs. Downey.

For the coming year the departments and special committees, excepting the department of National Defense, now War Service, have been reorganized to conform to those of the General Federation. Most divisions and some committees have been eliminated. Work formerly done as division work will be done under direct supervision of the department chairmen. In this way we hope to conserve effort and give more time for war work.

On June 19 I held a meeting with major department chairmen at the Columbia Club in Indianapolis. On July 22 an all day meeting of all department, division and committee chairmen was held, also at the Columbia Club. At noon we joined Mrs. Ahlgren, Mrs. Allen and the district presidents for luncheon. At this meeting the newly created department of National Defense was explained. Civilian defense officials of Indian discussed state plans.

It was a pleasure to attend Federation Day at Bethany Park and at Winona Lake. I also attended the Political Science Forum at Manchester College, the federation luncheons at the Hoosier Salon and at the Indiana Artists Exhibit, and the dinner following the meeting of Governor Schricker's Planning Board.

Duties incidental to office have been cared for, I have attended all executive committee meetings.

During the year I have attended and spoken at club meetings, county conventions and at one church service on the "Return to Religion."

The outstanding event of my year was making the rounds of the district conventions last fall with the most delightful of travelling companions, our State President. At each convention I spoke on the subject "Forward for Defense." I finished that tour with an increased knowledge of my native state and a deeper appreciation and love of Indiana club women.

For unfailing courtesy and cooperation I express my appreciation to the members of the state board, to all chairmen, to district and county officers, and to each and every club woman in Indiana.

SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT

MRS. W. C. ALLEN, Fort Wayne, Indiana

It has been a privilege and an honor to serve as Second Vice-president of the Indiana Federation of Clubs. The cooperation and fine work of the thirteen District Presidents and their County Presidents has been an inspiration.

Two District Presidents meetings were held at the Columbia Club one in June and the other in July. On both occasions we were joined at luncheon by Mrs. Lykins and her Department chairmen. Civilian Defense and its program for the Federated Clubs of Indiana was the main topic of interest at these meetings. They were well attended and we received great inspiration from them.

I have attended all State Board Meetings and was a guest at many club meetings.

Club Extension being the activity assigned to the Second

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Vice-President it was with great joy and pride that I received the news that Indiana had received a prize at the Fort Worth Convention for Club Extension. This proves that the club women of Indiana have done a grand job at a most trying time.

It has been wonderful to read of the outstanding achievements during the past year of each county in Indiana. There are so many different and worthwhile projects that one just marvels at the scope of the Federation.

As one of the assistant editors of the Indiana Clubwoman Magazine I have edited all District Presidents activities in all issues and furnished copy for the Extension page in all issues. The Program for the "Information Please" hour at the Mid-Winter Council Meeting was arranged with the First Vice-President and much information was gleaned from this hour.

During the past year it has been the earnest endeavor of your Second Vice-President to carry out all the duties incidental to the office and to give "all out" support to our very capable and never tiring President, Mrs. Ahlgren.

The District Presidents have worked well and faithfully and I am deeply grateful to them for their fine work and their prompt response to many requests—for whatever success has been mine I am indebted to these fine women.

THIRD VICE-PRESIDENT

Mrs. George R. Dillinger, French Lick

It has been a great privilege and pleasure to serve you as Third Vice-President and to work with the Juniors this year. It is indeed heartening in these troubled days to read the fine reports sent in by our Junior Clubs and to realize that the Federation in the future will be in good hands and the torch held high.

We have 42 Junior clubs with a membership of 910 and 56 Sub-Junior clubs with a membership of 1,446. This year 4 new Junior clubs and 3 new Sub-Junior clubs have been added to our list.

In October I held a luncheon meeting for our District Junior Chairmen in Indianapolis. There we discussed Junior problems and ways of carrying out the five point program of special projects for the year—

1. Writing to girls in the other Americas.
2. Making friends with girls from the other Americas who are attending our colleges.
- 3 Helping with the 'Flying Cadet' program.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

4. Learning Spanish and doing all in our power to have it taught in our schools.

5. Doing all we can to strengthen our Church and to keep alive the Fine Arts in order to gain the inspiration and morale needed during these troubled times.

Fine work has been done on all of these projects. Girls have been written to in the other Americas and our girls have visited girls in school here in Indiana. One of the girls visited was Miss Elsa Marques, from Brazil, who holds our Indiana Federation Pan-American Scholarship at Indiana University. Our girls have taken an interest in Spanish. Many who have studied it in school have registered for service in language work. Our Juniors have helped with the Flying Cadet program in Indiana. The Indianapolis Juniors helped with the ceremony of Christening one of the ships. In other towns the girls furnished entertainment for the officers and Cadets when they came to town to secure other Cadets. We have stressed in Indiana a "Go to Church Every Sunday" project and we have urged our girls to help with church activities. The girls have not only had many programs on Fine Arts but have helped with Art exhibits and have contributed and worked for our State Symphony Orchestra.

The November issue of the Clubwoman Magazine was the Junior issue. The Juniors and Junior Chairmen co-operated beautifully in sending in material including many pictures for the magazine and it proved a big success. We had many compliments on it and we were indeed proud of it.

Score cards were mailed to each club as a check on activities. The response to these showed that the Juniors are making great progress in Federation work.

I wish to express my deep appreciation for this opportunity of working with our Juniors and for all your splendid co-operation. See also Junior report.

With Mrs. Lykins presiding, Mrs. Ahlgren asked Mrs. Jaqua if she thought the committee would be willing to use part of the money set aside to buy pictures to give a purchase prize at the Hoosier Salon in January. After discussion as to the medium, etc., Mrs. Jaqua said that she would bring this request to the committee.

The President called for Officer's reports.

Ingram in the interests of the Flying Cadets. She recommended that the Year Book carry the names of the sponsor of the Junior Club, and the President of the sponsoring club. She suggested there must be a program well grounded in Federation knowledge for the Junior and Sub-Junior clubs, such as a collection of Federation interests compiled in booklet form.

Ways of financing a Junior delegate to the State Convention discussed, and left with Junior Clubs for decision to be reported at the next Board meeting.

Mrs. A. S. Miles, Recording Secretary, reported all routine business cared for, applications for new clubs signed and filed, and orders for year books filled.

Mrs. Victor A. Mrs. George W. Jaqua, G. F. W. C. Director and State Defense Director reported letters had been written to County Presidents relative to County Defense members. A visit with Mrs. Whitehurst revealed that details of a National Defense Program have tangible form; she said the Washington program is a volunteer participation, the women's program encompasses every activity. Mrs. Fred L. Pettijohn, Drama and Recreation Chairman, reported on work being done in her department.

Mrs. Lykins presiding, Mrs. Oscar A. Ahlgren, President, gave her report.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Mrs. Ahlgren in her opening remarks said that after visiting all the district conventions and talking to men and women all over Indiana, she had decided that the most dangerous enemy this country has today is the average citizen—because of his apathy—he is certain there is nothing he can do about it anyway, so why try? He is absolutely opposed to sending an army to Europe but he is certain we will. He criticizes the government but does not vote on election day.

While Mrs. Ahlgren was discouraged with the apathy of the average person to local government she was very much encouraged with the "Return to Religion" program. She thinks there will be a religious renaissance during the next few years.

Mrs. Ahlgren thanked the Board for her State President's pin. It came shortly after the last Board meeting. She said it was a constant reminder of her responsibility—but it was also a constant reminder of our friendship and so it was a great source of power.

Immediately following the last meeting, Mrs. Ahlgren wrote to Governor Schricker asking his co-operation in the preservation of the Cox Woods near Paoli. This forest has been saved, and she said that the many letters written by I. F. C. women had a great deal to do with the stirring up of public sentiment and ultimate saving of the forest.

She contacted U. S. O. authorities and released publicity regarding our I. F. C., pledge to co-operate in this great project.

Mrs. Ahlgren had been in conference with Colonel Corkhill and Mr. Ostrom regarding the Flying Cadet program and under the leadership of Mrs. Dillinger the Juniors have been helping with this program. The next issue of the Indiana Club Woman, which will be the Junior issue, will feature an Indianapolis Junior christening a Flying Cadet Plane.

Mr. Davis of the Convention Bureau asked Mrs. Ahlgren to write to Mrs. Whitehurst as to a definite date for the G. F. W. C. Convention to be held in Indianapolis in 1943. This she did and Mrs. Whitehurst replied the week of May 10, 1943 has been set as the tentative date of the Convention.

She stated that Mrs. Lavengood had been in contact with Miss Hull at the Murat Temple and our Indianapolis symphony tickets are being used.

Mrs. Ahlgren had written her message for the Year Book and read proof, and she definitely recommended that next year we have a Year Book editor who will be responsible for securing all copy—reading the proof—in other words to assume full control in the publishing of the Year Book.

Mrs. Ahlgren was present at the presentation of the painting, "Bunnies and the Beast," by the late Renee Barnes, at the Riley Hospital for Crippled Children."

In response to the suggestion that a committee be appointed to decide what old books of the treasurer should be kept, Miss

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

May Hobbs, a former treasurer, was appointed to work with Mrs. F. G. Balz, the historian, in going over and keeping or discarding old records of the treasurer.

A letter was received from the Columbus Memorial Committee, asking that the President appoint two women from Indiana to the committee. The plan is to erect a statue of Columbus in Santa Domingo. Mrs. Harry Lee Beshore, Marion, our International Relations Chairman, and Mrs. George Russell, Gary, our American Citizenship Chairman, were appointed to serve on this committee.

Mrs. Ahlgren attended Bethany Park Day—with an attendance of over 125—the next day we had our National Defense Council in Indianapolis with 136 attending. Clarence Jackson, Civilian Defense Director, and Dr. C. L. Malan, Superintendent of Public Instruction, were the speakers.

Winona Day was also well attended and we are all so grateful to Mrs. Baum, our Trustee, for her overnight hospitality.

The group at Indianapolis, July 22, passed a resolution asking Governor Schricker to find some way of continuing the Narcotics Control Committee, so as to have a check on Marijuana. The Governor was deeply interested and placed the responsibility with the State Police. From reports at the District Conventions, the State Police were of great help in many localities.

The Honeywell Art Festival in Wabash, was one of the highlights of the summer.

On July 9, Mrs. Ahlgren spoke at the 38th annual Convention of Colored Women's Clubs in Lafayette.

One day during the summer, Mrs. Ahlgren was the luncheon guest of Mrs. Preston Wettaw, President of the Illinois Federation, and attended the organization meeting of all women's organizations in the state, which was called by Mrs. William T. Bruckner, National Defense Chairman for the Illinois Federation.

She attended the radio luncheon at the Claypool Hotel, at which Dorothy Lewis, who is in charge of the children's programs, was the speaker. Mrs. Lewis paid high tribute to Mrs. Botkin, our radio chairman. As a result of this meeting, a radio council will undoubtedly be formed in Indianapolis.

She spoke at the Woman's Department Club at Bedford, and attended the opening tea of the Hoosier Galleries in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Ahlgren said, quote—"It was a perfect joy to me to attend the Thirteenth District Conventions. Mrs. Lykins traveled with me to all the conventions and gave a splendid talk at each one on the subject, "Forward for Defense." My subject was, "The Time Has Come," and in evaluating the conventions, there is one thing uppermost in my mind. We had a large attendance at every single convention. More women came than have been coming for many years, but there is something that worries me very much. Where is the women between 30 and 40 years of age? They are not in our conventions. What are they doing? Do they play bridge all day? I was simply amazed not long ago, to go in a large department store at 9:30 one morning to find the auditorium of that store filled with women playing bridge—several hundred were there. Is that what the young married woman is doing? What is wrong? Obviously we are not giving them what they want—our program is failing somewhere. Let's see what can be done about it. We will have to do something about it if we are to survive."

Mrs. Ahlgren attended the annual Citizenship Day celebration in Terre Haute; spoke at a luncheon meeting of the Terre Haute Federated Woman's Club; spoke on National Defense at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce in Fort Wayne and at a Civilian Defense meeting in Indianapolis.

She said we have just closed our three forums and each one was a distinct success. Over 700 women attended the three forums.

She said she had received many letters commending our magazine, our Program Booklet, and our Year Book.

Mrs. Ahlgren requested that a letter go from this Board to Mrs. John B. Wisely of Terre Haute. Professor Wisely died on November 3. He was President of the Indiana Union of Literary Clubs, which later became the Indiana Federation of Clubs—and that is why we are known as I. F. C. instead of I. F. W. C.

Since the last Board meeting, Mrs. Ahlgren has accepted the following appointments:

Mrs. Ahlgren explained that the G. F. W. C. Convention date in Texas and the tour which follows comes just before the date set for the Spring Convention. Any of our members who attend the Convention and take the tour could not be back in time for the State Convention.

Mrs. Allen moved, Mrs. Jaqua seconded, that the motion to accept the invitation of the French Lick Springs Hotel for May 14, 15, 16, 16, be reconsidered. Motion carried.

Mrs. Bell moved, Mrs. Jaqua seconded, that a service charge of 50 cents per day be added to the Hotel rate and 10% be added to meals for people staying outside of the hotel. Motion carried.

It was taken by consent that a letter of sympathy be written to Mrs. John B. Wisely, Terre Haute, expressing sympathy in the death of her husband Prof. John B. Wisely, president Indiana Union of Literary Clubs in 1898.

The Board was adjourned to meet the following morning at 9:00 a. m.

PROCEDURE FOR CLUBS JOINING THE FEDERATION

Application blanks for membership in Indiana Federation of Clubs may be secured from the Corresponding Secretary who is Chairman of the Membership Committee, or from the President of the District Federation, or the President of the County Federation. A club shall state whether universal, affiliate, or junior membership is desired.

When the application blank has been filled out, it shall be sent to the Corresponding Secretary. A copy of the constitution and by-laws of the club and a check for dues must accompany the application. If all data is given and the club is entitled to membership, the Corresponding Secretary copies the data into a book reserved for the purpose, signs the blanks and forwards it, with the check, to the Treasurer, who copies the data. The blank is then sent to the members of the Membership Committee in the order named—the President, the Second Vice-President, and the Recording Secretary, each one of whom signs the blank.

The Recording Secretary files the blank and the constitution and by-laws of the club and notifies the Corresponding Secretary. The Corresponding Secretary reports the club's admission to membership to the President of the Club, the President of the County Federation and the President of the District Federation.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

MRS. VICTOR A. SELBY, Fairmount

Your Corresponding Secretary wishes to thank you for the honor of serving the Indiana Federation of Clubs. It has been an inspiration and a pleasure to correspond with the clubwomen from over the state, to note how, as the year advanced, they realized as never before that their membership in the Federation gave their group a key position, whether in the support of social or civic projects that were important to their communities, or in cooperation with the state and local council of National Defense.

To Mrs. Ahlgren, our President, I am deeply grateful for her thoughtfulness and her kindness, which have made it a joy to fill this office. My thanks to all the Executive Committee for their friendship and cooperation.

It has been a pleasure to be a guest in many of your clubs, and in district and county conventions. Your club programs were received with keen appreciation; these were on display in the foyer of the convention hall, where others enjoyed and benefited by them.

The work of this office, generally speaking, has been to conduct the correspondence of the Federation. Notices for each Executive Committee and Advisory Board meeting were mailed to all Executive Committee members and Department Chairmen, adding the Special Committee Chairmen and District Presidents for the latter meeting. Letters of information, inquiry, appreciation, and condolence, as well as those pertaining to the official business, have been written. Although many hundreds of letters have gone out from my desk, it has all been a pleasure, made so by the splendid cooperation of the clubwomen throughout the state.

Your Corresponding Secretary, as chairman of the Membership Committee, received 34 applications for membership into the Federation. All applications were signed and sent to others of the Committee. Duplicate copies were made for the files of the State Treasurer and Corresponding Secretary. A letter of welcome was written to each new club, upon admission, and to the District and County Presidents. Lists of new clubs have been sent to the General Federation, the First Vice-President, the Second Vice-President, the Third Vice-President, and the Business Manager of the Clubwoman.

All Executive and Advisory Board meetings and the State Convention, have been attended. Six district and four county conventions gave a fine understanding of the work accomplished by our clubs. The special Federation days at Bethany Park, Winona, Manchester College, and the Indiana Hoosier Art Salon were inspiring and enjoyable.

The Official Call, with proper credential cards, were mailed to all officers of the Federation, honorary members, department, division, and committee chairmen, district and county presidents, and all club presidents. A directory was made for the Credential committee, indicating all clubs and delegates entitled to vote at this convention.

The Official Directory of Clubs and Tabulated List of Towns have been compiled for the Year Book. I wish to express appreciation to all District Presidents for preparing so promptly their District Directories.

Of the 34 applications which have been accepted to membership, 27 were for Universal Membership, 4 Junior Memberships, and 3 were Sub Junior Memberships.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

TREASURER

Mrs. Fred B. Bell, Rushville

The detailed financial report as an audited account of all receipts and disbursements will be found in the Auditors report in the year book.

The work of the Treasurer is an all time job with not a dull moment. I have endeavored to answer all communications promptly and with courtesy. The close contact and splendid co-operation of the club women has made the task a very pleasant one and it has indeed been a pleasure and joy to serve you. Thanks to you for making this possible. Our President has been so kind and considerate of her Executive board at all times, that with the fine spirit of harmony displayed by every member of the Board it has made the year a very happy one.

Early in October, greetings were sent to each club president reminding them their dues were payable November 1st. Their prompt response made it possible to issue the first rebate on December 6 for 360 clubs. Three rebates have been made and lists of clubs arranged alphabetically by towns, were sent with each rebate to the General Federation.

Receipts were made in triplicate form, one going direct to the club, one to County Presidents and one remaining on the files of the State Treasurer. A financial statement was prepared each month and sent to the President and Chairman of Trustees. Dues were received from 561 universal clubs with a membership of 16,866, twenty-four affiliate and thirty-four Sub-Junior clubs.

The prizes offered to the District having most of its dues paid by January 1st and to the District being first to have all dues paid, both went to Sixth District, with 85.5% dues by January 1st and all dues paid by March 11. Honorable mention goes to Eighth District.

Your Treasurer attended all meetings of the Executive Board and Council, also many District and County meetings. It was her pleasure to attend the General Federation January Board Meeting and National Defense Forum in Washington, also the G. F. Convention in Fort Worth, Texas. The contacts made at these meetings certainly increases one's vision and knowledge of the vast strength and power that lies in our organization, and how proud we should be to be a part of it.

TRUSTEES REPORT

MRS. J. H. HOWARTH, Chairman

After the closing session of the 1941 State Convention at the Claypool Hotel, the trustees met and organized their board. Mrs. J. H. Howarth was selected as chairman, Mrs. George C. Baum, secretary and Mrs. Cogley G. Cole welcomed as the new Junior member.

The first meeting of the trustees with Mrs. Ahlgren, President of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, was held at Maxinkuckee Inn, Culver, Ind., June 23. The trustees recommended that transportation for elected officers, parliamentarian and department chairmen be increased from 3c to 5c per mile and that elected officers and parliamentarian be paid $5.00 per diem for the 1942 State Convention at French Lick and $3.00 per diem for meetings of the executive board. They also recommended the 5c per capita regular appropriation from special fund be used to pay the increased 5c per capita on members' dues to the General Federation. The estimated income from dues, interest on investments, student loans, advertising and magazine subscriptions was $12,498.00. The balanced budget estimating income and expenditures amounting to the above figure was presented to the executive board and accepted.

The contract for printing and mailing the year book and Clubwoman Magazine was given to The News-Examiner Publishing Company of Connersville. The contract covers a three year period. The E. C. Saunders Publishing Company of Indianapolis was given exclusive rights to the advertising for both publications. Advertising in the year book netted the Federation $551.25 and the magazine $619.15. All delinquent accounts for the previous year was collected except one $10.00 ad. All accounts for this fiscal year have been collected except one $5.00 ad. The contract for the department programs was given to I. J. Pomeroy of Plainfield at a cost of $175.53 and the club stationery went to The News-Examiner of Connersville for $119.57. Printing and mailing the year book, 1,800 copies was $849.03. The cost of printing and mailing the magazine as a monthly publication for thirteen months, from May, 1941, to, and including May, 1942, was $3,188.62. Editors expense for twelve months was $296.77 Business managers expense totaled $53.22. Transportation for officers on business of the magazine was $40.50. Transportation and per diem for editor and business manager for the twelve months was $128.20. Miscellaneous expense $15.77. Total magazine disbursements were $3,723.08. Total magazine subscriptions as reported by business manager was $623.00.

At the close of last year a new Indiana State Flag was purchased for the Federation and a stop-watch has been added to the organization's assets this year. Cost of flag $40.95 and watch $11.00. From the Foundation Fund, three $100.00 War Bonds were purchased. The United Christian Missionary Society Securities were called and the new board will reinvest this amount which is $6,500.00.

Howard W. Painter of Indianapolis has been retained as auditor for the second year.

May 15, 1942, the trustees met with E. C. Saunders in his office in Indianapolis and signed contracts for the advertising for the 1942-43 year book and the Clubwoman Magazine. Mr. Saunders was given exclusive rights for the year book and for two issues of the magazine the Christmas and Convention issues. The other issues are open to the club women of the state, who care to take advantage of this opportunity to secure advertising for the magazine and retain their 50% commission. The trustees recommended the magazine to be cut to a ten months publication eliminating the two summer months July and August, but leaving the subscription price at 50c. This recommendation was accepted by the executive board and the trustees made the necessary arrangements with the publishers for this plan.

Vouchers from D-1 to D-200 have been written.

I have attended all meetings of the executive board and all state conventions during my three years as trustee. I have made two broadcasts during that time. From station WBAA Purdue and WDAN Danville, Illinois.

As a committee we wish to thank all members of the executive board for their fine cooperation and the club women over the state for their kindness and consideration on more than one occasion.

Signed Board of Trustees.

MRS. J. H. HOWARTH, Chairman.

MRS. GEORGE C. BAUM, Secretary.

MRS. COGLEY G. COLE, Junior Member.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

DUTIES OF DISTRICT PRESIDENTS

The District President is the District Executive. She is the BALANCE WHEEL, for on her rests the responsibility for the successful functioning of the County organizations and their work on the one hand, and the State program of work on the other hand. She should read the YEAR BOOK carefully and each issue of the "Indiana Clubwoman." If in doubt concerning her duties or policies, she should consult the Second Vice-President, who is Chairman of the District Presidents. No outline can cover all the duties which may be asked of the District President. Following are those which are indispensable:

ORGANIZATION. "District Club Federations shall be numbered the same as the several Congressional Districts of the State were, prior to 1930, and include the same Counties." Constitution and By-laws of each District should be kept in harmony with those of the State Federation. At least one annual meeting should be held with regular election of Officers. "Only members of Clubs that are in Universal Membership in the State Federation of Clubs are eligible to the office of District President." District Presidents may be represented by the Vice-Presidents at the State Convention.

COUNTIES. The District President should keep the County organizations of her District in smooth running order. She should know the County Presidents personally; commend their worthwhile activities; urge emphasis among the individual Clubs of all Federation policies; endeavor to enlist their aid in making the District 100% in the payment of State dues before the Annual Convention; encourage universal reading of the "Indiana Clubwoman." She should aid the County President in arranging with them a schedule of dates for the County Conventions which should precede the annual District Meeting.

EXTENSION. "In counties not organized the District President shall appoint a County President." Every effort should be made to complete the organization by arranging for the Annual Convention and the election of officers as soon as practicable.

The District President should assist County Presidents and District and State Extension Chairmen with Extension work; encourage unfederated clubs to federate; organize new Clubs; organize Junior Departments of Adult Clubs; furnish the State Chairman of Extension with the name and address of each Club in the District not federated by the State.

CONVENTIONS. District Presidents will make all arrangements for and preside over the annual District Convention. In selecting a date, it should be arranged convenient to the schedule of the State President, who should be invited to attend, her expenses paid and her local entertainment provided. Brief reports of District Officers, County Presidents, and District Department Chairmen should be included on the program.

The District President is a member of the Advisory Board, the Council and the delegate body of the Annual Convention to the Indiana Federation of Clubs. She should plan to attend these meetings, if possible, and especially the Annual Convention, where she gains inspiration for the furtherance of the State work in her District.

DIRECTORY. On or before April 1 of each year, the District President shall compile the District Directory and forward a copy of same to the State Corresponding Secretary. This Directory shall contain for each state federated club:

1. Name and location (town or city) of club.
2. Number of members.
3. Dates of organization and federation (state).
4. Names and addresses of Presidents who will be in office during the year next ensuing.

Directory of the State should include ONLY those clubs which belong to the State and General Federation and must be classified as to membership—Universal, Affiliate or Junior.

DEPARTMENT CHAIRMEN. On or before March 15, each newly elected District President shall recommend to the first vice-president of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, a member for each of the Departments and Divisions of work whom she is willing to recommend as conscientious, co-operative and interested in Federation work; whom she believes to be interested in a particular line of work (stating such definitely) and who will serve, if appointed (consent having been secured in advance).

The District President shall familiarize herself with the duties of Department Chairmen, encourage them to study their particular activity as outlined in recent issues of the "Indiana Clubwoman," and give them all possible assistance in promoting these activities in the District.

CLUBWOMAN. A District COLUMN is included in each issue of the Indiana Clubwoman. District Presidents will either furnish or have prepared an article containing the NEWS of the District, and forward same to the Second Vice-President, by 1st of each month.

RECORDS AND REPORTS. The District President should keep a record of all the work of the District; prepare an annual report and furnish the Second Vice-President with a typewritten copy on or before the Annual Convention; make a complete report of all work accomplished or undertaken, to the incoming President immediately after she takes office.

DUTIES OF COUNTY PRESIDENTS

The County President is the County Executive. She is the KEY to the success of the State Federation. She should read the YEAR BOOK carefully and each issue of the Indiana Clubwoman. If in doubt concerning her duties or policies, she should consult her District President or Second Vice-President of the State Federation, who is Chairman of the District and County Presidents. No outline can cover all the duties which may be asked of the County President. Following are those which are indispensable. "The County President shall be a member of a Club in Universal membership." County Presidents may be represented by their Vice-Presidents at the State Convention.

ORGANIZATION. An "Organized County" is one in which there is held an annual convention and regular election of officers. If your county is not organized, this should be accomplished as soon as possible. Two annual meetings are recommended for Counties, one of which may be a Council Meeting. Counties should have Constitution and By-Laws, which are kept in conformity with those of the District and State.

CLUBS. The County President should acquaint herself with the FEDERATED Clubs of her County and visit them when possible; encourage the payment of all Federation dues promptly November 1st; commend their worthwhile activities; urge their co-operation with and promotion of all policies of the Federation; encourage their members to subscribe for and read the Indiana Clubwoman.

EXTENSION. She should urge unfederated clubs to federate; furnish the District President and the District Extension Chairman with the names and addresses of the Presidents of all Clubs not federated with the District or State. She should organize new Clubs wherever possible, and Junior Departments of Adult Clubs.

CONVENTIONS. County Presidents will make all arrangements for and preside over the annual COUNTY Convention.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

In selecting a date for this Convention it should be chosen in advance of the District Convention and at a time suited to the schedule of the District President, who shall be invited to attend, her expenses paid and her entertainment provided. Brief reports of County Officers, Club Presidents and County Department Chairmen should be heard at the Annual Convention.

All meetings called by the District President should be attended if possible, especially the District Convention, where a report should be made or furnished and all messages, suggestions and instructions conveyed from it.

She is a member of the delegate body of the Council and the Annual Convention of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, and should plan to attend these meetings and gain inspiration for the furtherance of the State work in her County.

DIRECTORY. On or before March 15th of each year, the County President shall compile the County Directory and forward a copy of same to her District President. This Directory shall contain for each federated club:

1. Name and location (town or city) of club.
2. Number of Members.
3. Dates of organization and federation (state).
4. Names and addresses of Presidents and Treasurer who will be in office during the year next ensuing.
5. Clubs must be classified to membership—"Universal, Affiliate, or Junior."

DEPARTMENT CHAIRMEN. On or before July 1st, each newly elected County President shall select her County Department workers for the coming year, notify each that she has been appointed and send their names to the incoming District President. Also send a list of women from the County whom she is willing to recommend as conscientious, co-operative and interested in Federation work; whom she believes to be interested in a particular line of work (stating such definitely) and who will serve (consent having been secured in advance), if they should be appointed as District Department Chairman.

The County President shall familiarize herself with the duties of Department Chairmen, encourage them to study their particular activity as outlined in recent issues of the Indiana Clubwoman, and give them all possible assistance in promoting their particular activities in the County. The Department Chairmen should make their reports at the Annual Convention.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

RECORDS AND REPORTS. The County President should keep a record of all the work of the County; prepare an annual report and furnish the District President with a copy of this report immediately following her County Convention. A copy of this report should also be furnished the newly elected County President at the same time.

AIM. To have "a group of organized women in every part of your County who can be depended upon to promote every interest looking toward the betterment of life."

DUTIES OF CLUB PRESIDENTS

The President of a Federated Club forms the direct contact between her Club and the Federation. She should familiarize herself with the plan of the Federation by reading the Year Book of Indiana Federation of Clubs, the Indiana Clubwoman and the Clubwoman, G. F. W. C.

COMMITTEES. In so far as it is practicable the Club President should appoint Committees in her Club corresponding to those in the Federation. In Clubs of small membership two or three Departments of work may be cared for by the same Committee. These Committees should study their Departments and be ready at all times to present interesting reports to the Club. The President should give time on Club programs for these reports in order that Club Members may be informed regarding Federation activities. A good plan is to use Federation Items as roll call responses.

CONVENTION. The Club President should attend County, District and State Federation Conventions and the County Council Meetings so as to receive help and inspiration for her work. The Club President is in a position to do much to shape the policy of her Club and the Club looks to her for direction. The Club President should be sure that she and the other delegates express the sentiment of her Club when voting in Convention. Resolutions passed by accredited delegates in Convention become binding upon the Clubs.

It is suggested that every Club observe Federation Day following the annual State Convention.

MEETINGS. The success of a Club depends most of all upon the presiding officer. The Club President should be prompt and business-like, and always kind. A certain knowledge of parliamentary law will be found helpful. Working with the Program Committee, the Club President will offer to her Club the best programs possible. Guest speakers should be accorded their rightful time and place on program, even though the business session not be completed.

COMMUNICATIONS. The Club President should bring to the attention of her Club all communications received from the Federation. When reply is asked it should be made as soon as possible.

REPORTS. The Club President is responsible to the President of the County Federation and to the various County Department Chairmen for the report of the Club's activities.

DIRECTORY. The Club President should report as early as possible, on blanks furnished by the State Federation, the names of Club Officers for the following year, number of members in Club and other data. Blanks should be returned to the County Federation President by March 10th.

ELECTIONS. The Federation urges that Club elections be held in January.

DUES. The Club President should see that the Club's dues are sent to the Treasurer of the State Federation in November. Clubs will pay dues on number of members reported on Blue Blanks which is the number recorded in the State Directory.

YEAR BOOKS. Club Presidents should see that the Club's Year Book is sent to the President and to the Corresponding Secretary of the State Federation, the President of the District and County Federation, and to the Extension Division of Indiana University. Year Books should also be sent to the State Federation's representatives on the Indianapolis newspapers and to the local newspaper.

The General Federation requests that all Club Year Books be in uniform size, $5\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ inches, so as to facilitate filing. Year Books should contain lists of Officers of the Federation.

PUBLICITY. Club Presidents are urged to keep the work of their Clubs before the public through the local press. The Club Press Chairman should send reports to the County Federation Chairman of Press and Publicity and to the Federation's representatives on the Indianapolis newspapers. Outstanding events should be reported to the State Federation Chairman of Press and Publicity.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

FIRST DISTRICT

MRS. WM. COOPER, Evansville, President

This district consists of only four counties, with a membership of 509. Our Theme: Looking Forward; Project: Loyalty in Defense, has been carried out to the best of our ability.

We were "Looking Forward" for more clubs, of which two new clubs were added; also Loyalty in Defense, and can truthfully say, every member of district has been loyal in defense.

Two new clubs added to our district, of which we are proud; Booneville Forum and Booneville Literary Club, due to efforts of Miss Tollie Toole. Eighteen clubs and a gain in membership.

Woman's Club of Booneville celebrated their 32nd anniversary with a tea. Their usual guest day was omitted this year, and a fifty dollar bond was bought with the money that usually paid for a speaker.

Blind sales amounted to $23.16; club reports activities in all departments of National and Civilian Defense.

The Woman's Forum organized September 30, 1941, at Booneville; the purpose was to organize a Universal Federated Club. Membership limited to twenty. This club new in years of organization, but not in experience. Programs are varied; also working for Red Cross.

Hours were from one to four, followed by a Russian Tea; Vanderburg county held at Y. W. C. A. last of April; Warrick county convention was held at Newburg, History Club as hostess. Posey county held no county convention.

The clubs in district report 512 hours given to the different club studies and activities. Five clubs contributed to the Penny Art Fund. Two new clubs added with a membership increase of fifty. Sorry to report Juniors not active at present.

SECOND DISTRICT

MRS. HARRY E. DEES, Bicknell, President

The month following the State Convention Second District held a council meeting and chose the project "Defense of the American Home." All of the counties accepted this in some form. This same day a department council was held under the direction of Mrs. Rudolph Wernz, First Vice-President. Our theme has been "Stand Fast in Liberty."

Two issues of the "Newsette" were edited by Mrs. Guy Germano. District Press and Publicity Chairman, before paper shortage caused the bulletin to be discontinued.

A District Art Festival was held in Martinsville, the afternoon of April 15th with the District Art Chairman, Mrs. Walter Thompson of Mooresville in charge. She was assisted by Monroe County Art Chairman, Mrs. Ralph Wershing. The State Art Chairman, Mrs. Walter Grow was present and talked. Two pictures of Visual Instruction from Indiana University were shown. Guest artists at the piano and violin added to the pleasure of the occasion. Sixty-five were registered.

All counties held one council meeting, some held two and three.

It has been my privilege to attend all county conventions. I take this opportunity to thank them for many unusual courtesies.

All contributed as a club or individually to defense measures. Most are working for Red Cross, and other agencies set up by our government. Bond and Stamp purchases were extensive.

Our District was well represented at Bethany Park Day, Indianapolis Forums, and the Hoosier Art Salon.

Thumb Nail Reports by County—

Daviess—Two clubs purchased $25 Defense bonds. All clubs support a Tiny Tim Children's ward in Daviess County Hospital, sponsored "Boxes for Buddies," and observed a minute of prayer daily.

Greene—Registered all county women as well as 630 club women. County goals of patriotic and religious convocation exercises in all major schools, display of American Flag and playing of the National Anthem in all theatres before each performance, were reached. Each club contributed $2.50 toward the county Student Loan and 35c per club toward the District.

Clubs contributed extensively toward the furnishing and welfare of inmates of the county home and hospital. More than $400 worth of articles were purchased from the blind. Individual clubs sponsored Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire and Brownie groups.

It has been a pleasure to serve as President of Second District, giving as well as receiving service. I wish for my successor, Mrs. Lily Osbon of Jasonville, as cheerful co-operation as has been given me

THIRD DISTRICT

MRS. H. L. KIBLER, French Lick, President

Our theme for the year is "United for Defense." Now, since we are at war, we can change it to "United to Win." All clubs report their members are doing much war work. Many are taking or teaching courses in First Aid and Home Nursing. Many clubs are buying War Stamps and War Bonds. Some clubs are sacrificing refreshments in order to put their savings into War Stamps for their clubs. The Red Cross, Cancer Control, Tuberculosis Fund, China Relief, and many local relief projects have been sponsored by the clubs in our district.

Mrs. Hale Anderson, as Floyd County President, "got up and put over" a parcel post sale at the County Convention. The proceeds have bought two wheel chairs for the Fort Knox, Kentucky hospital. The New Albany Woman's Club gave $100.00 to the Fauntleroy home, $100.00 for National Defense and sold 530 towels for the Co-operation for the Blind, netting $159.00.

The Fine Arts Club of English and the Woman's Literary Club of French Lick were both winners of prizes in the Star Program Building Contest. Orange county sponsors writing letters to boys in service.

The Lawrence County project of buying an iron lung for the new Bedford Hospital is coming along very well. This is certainly a notable and praiseworthy task and takes courage. Good Luck!

The District meeting was held at Corydon. We enjoyed Mrs. Ahlgren's visit with us very much. We also wish to thank the clubs of Corydon for their warm hospitality and courtesy to us. We did enjoy visiting their historical sites.

The Third District was very happy to have been the hostess to the State Convention. We hope every one enjoyed the Convention as much as we enjoyed having it. We are looking forward to having you again!

FOURTH DISTRICT

MRS. L. C. GIBSON, Rising Sun, President

The first of a three year term has passed and I am earnestly praying that the two years ahead may be carried on under more peaceful world-wide conditions. Our Federated women must necessarily foster a spirit of "Victory Consciousness" and educate our members to throw aside all selfish interests and pleasures to make the winning of this war, and above all, a Permanent Peace, uppermost in our minds and hearts.

Our Fourth District women have made for themselves a prominent place in the State Victory program and we are quite proud of our record; especially the total sale value of articles made by the blind and totaling almost $700.00.

Bartholomew county has been quite active in all Civic and Patriotic programs for National Defense. The club, as a whole, and twelve individual members are enrolled members of Women's Field Army.

Dearborn county sold $144.50 worth of T. B. Seals and purchased a bond. They also sponsored a Red Cross Nursing and First Aid class.

Jackson County Study Club celebrated their silver anniversary with a dinner party. They made a large contribution to the State Defense program.

Jefferson county delightfully entertained the District Convention in the spacious Brown Gymnasium at Madison in October. They brought distinction to the District by being the first county in the state to complete a county-wide house to house drive for Defense Savings.

Jennings county pledged 100% support for our National program. Held a "World Day of Prayer Day" and an interesting meeting entitled "100 Years in Music and Dress."

Johnson county active in Registration for Defense. Blind Sales amounted to $105.45, also contributing to Memorial Fund.

Ripley county sponsors three energetic and wide awake Junior clubs whose wonderful reports were an inspiration to all who attended their county convention. A bright future is ahead for Ripley county in our Federation work.

Ohio county honored the District President at the opening meeting of the Women's Club, having a guest speaker lecture on Old Mexico, bringing a beautiful display of baskets, linens, pottery, etc. We increased our total sale of articles made by the blind more than 300%; thanks being due our ambitious chairman and the Eggleston club at Vevay.

Switzerland county is quite fortunate in having two state officers to keep them "at the top" in state recognition. All departments have made a most creditable record. A delightful guest day meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Cogley Cole, Sr., with Judge Nichols delivering a speech on "Child Delinquency."

My sincere thanks and appreciation for the splendid co-operation received from each county president in preparing these reports, and in the work that has been accomplished in our district. May we enter this next year of Federation work with Faith and Courage; Faith in a complete Victory for our glorious Nation and a sustained Courage to carry us through each task assigned us.

FIFTH DISTRICT

MRS. BRUCE LANE, Bainbridge, President

Project—Christianity in the Home and School.

Most all clubs had work along National Defense lines; much money was expended for Public Welfare; donated to the Red Cross as well as did sewing and knitting; contributed to the Cancer Control fund; Infantile Paralysis fund; Milk fund for the schools; Penny Art fund; Musical Pennies and aid for the blind. Many women have been enrolled in First Aid, Nursing and Nutrition classes. A large per cent of the clubs have discontinued serving refreshments at their meetings and are using the money toward buying Defense Bonds and Stamps.

Clay—Voted a Student Loan Fund of $50 in honor of Miss Louise Klingler, past district president, treasurer and trustee of I. F. C. who passed away during the year. Brazil clubs donate much money for the milk diet in their schools. Clay City held an art exhibit with 80 pictures that was viewed by 500 school children. The Study Club has bought $75 in Defense bonds and has a three minute Bible character study at each meeting.

Hendricks—Secured a new Universal club, the North Salem Study Club. At the county convention $5 was voted for Cancer Fund; $25 Defense Bond bought to be given to Central Normal College for a scholarship fund; and $15 was added to their Student Loan fund. The clubs take pride in improving their several libraries. One club gave 218 books in the Victory Book campaign.

Parke—Stands at the top in articles sold for the blind. Greene Township Club sells towels at every meeting and sponsors the township 4-H clubs. The Rosedale Club has been backing the "Go to Church Movement." The free library which has been a main project of the county will start July 1st. It has lost three of its valued members during the year: Mrs. John S. McFadden, a past district president and first vice-president of I. F. C.; Mrs. Mary Broderick, a past county president, and Mrs. May Whipple of Rockville.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Putnam—Voted a $25 Defense Bond at its county convention. Clubs of the county sent food to the Service Men's Club in Indianapolis. The Federated Reading Club is open to anyone wishing to work toward membership in E. S. O. The new Universal club added this year is the Home Economics Culture Club of Greencastle. The Universal clubs of Greencastle unite at Christmas in a guest meeting with a program put on by the Public Speech department of DePauw University. All county clubs do much for the county hospital.

Vermillion—The clubs are working to better conditions around the defense plant located in the county. They sponsor the work at Hillcrest Community Center in Clinton and hold impressive ceremonies when foreigners receive their citizenship. A large number of the clubs are having "Good Neighbor" programs. Perrysville clubs sponsor their Junior Club.

Vigo—The religious pledge cards distributed by the club women won a response of a 35% increase in church attendance. They also sponsored the third Citizenship Day. Their Conservation department has improved 50 cemeteries, have 500 Victory gardens beside many flower gardens. One club is aiding a student girl through college. A gallery tour of their new art gallery was a highlight of their county convention. They hold parties for their blind and give prizes to their young poets. Prof. John B. Wisely, the only man to be president of the I. F. C., passed away during the year.

Project—In carrying out our project all counties reported increased church attendance and feel that the movement will be carried on through the years.

Appreciation—In closing my term of office I wish to express my appreciation for the many courtesies shown me during the past two years. It has given me the rich blessing of new friendships over the district which I will always cherish. I ask the same support to be given to Mrs. Jones in all her endeavors to carry on federation work.

SIXTH DISTRICT

MRS. FRED COSSAIRT, Shelbyville, President

Sixth District Club ladies have had a fine year of study and fellowship. As I attended county conventions I was pleased with the number of Reciprocity meetings. Also I was very pleased no Universal club disbanded for the "Duration." Many have quit serving refreshments and are holding only monthly meetings but are continuing with their programs of study.

Reports were received in all departments from all counties. Some were outstanding. Public Welfare, American Home with

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Return to Religion, Consumer Problems and ways to help win the war were subjects stressed. Our ladies are conscious we are at war and are doing everything humanly possible to assist. All counties registered their members, conservation of food is being studied, Red Cross work is being done, sewing, classes in home nursing are being attended and bond buying is being done. Local philanthropic work is carried on in all counties. Every county contributed to the Blind Memorial Fund, the total, $58. We also sold $1793.80 worth of goods for the Industrial Aid for the Blind. We have been very interested in International Relations. It is touching our lives and we want to be informed. Many speakers were reported and the study of South America was had in many clubs. Many copies of the Reader's Digest were sent to South America.

Our ladies feel we must preserve the Culture which has been handed down to us. The Fine Arts program is not being overlooked in our district. Every county gave to the Singing Pennies and the Penny Art Fund. Poetry contests were held in some counties, Art Festivals were had in most counties. One was held and well attended by the district. Ladies of Henry county were lovely hostesses. To conserve tires and gasoline this was combined with our spring council meeting.

The district president has held a presidents' meeting in June, a council meeting in July following the state council meeting, a board meeting for final plans for district convention, a district convention in October, spring council meeting and has attended all state meetings and all county conventions. We conducted the registration of members and the church survey sponsored by the American Home Department. We have tried to support the state officers in all of their projects. As president of the district I want to thank all club members for their loyal support. I think I can say we have had a fine year together. I am sure we have realized our theme, "In Union There Is Strength."

SEVENTH DISTRICT

MRS. RUDOLPH F. GROSSKOPF, Indianapolis, President

Nursing home investigations, war service and politics received the major attention of the clubwomen of the Seventh District Federation of Clubs this past year.

Members of the District Public Welfare Department became amateur detectives and investigated conditions in thirty nursing homes for the aged and in February of this year made public the result. The revelation of deplorably filthy conditions and cruel treatment to which hundreds of aged persons were subjected awakened public interest not only in Indianapolis but in the state and nation. Because there is no state law which empowers state authorities to enforce minimum requirements for the operation of the homes, or regulation of them, the Seventh

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

District was asked by the State Board of Public Welfare to aid in securing state legislation which will be effective against abuses in these homes.

It was found that the awarding of Federal pensions to aged persons has aggravated the nursing home problem. Because of the Federation's interest the district president was made a member of a committee of four to investigate the homes in company with representatives of the prosecuting attorney's office and health board. Several homes were closed because of pressure of public opinion and several because of violation of health regulations. Two operators were involved in court proceedings. Absence of state law permits the re-establishment of such homes by these operators however.

Since last June the District Federation has furnished powerful and effective service in the defense and war program. Mrs. Dorothy Buschmann, Mrs. H. H. Arnholter, Mrs. Royer Knode Brown, Mrs. Nellie Downey and Mrs. Clayton Ridge, Mrs. Paul Stokes and Mrs. L. E. Gausepohl are among the many who have rendered invaluable and outstanding service to the community. Mrs. Buschmann for her organization of the Service Club for the Army, Navy and Marines, the Union Station Canteen and the Service Club for Colored Service Men and Mrs. Arnholter for her distinguished service as chairman of the Women's Division of the Marion County Office of Civilian Defense received national recognition. Mrs. Arnholter and the Women's Division were awarded a high efficiency rating by the National OCD. Mrs. Brown organized and trained 150 women for the Red Cross volunteer staff. Mrs. Stokes taught and Mrs. Gausepohl organized six six-weeks course in Nutrition and Economical Cooking about which a special article was written in the Christian Science Monitor last fall. Mrs. Gausepohl was then drafted by the Red Cross for the organizing of two Red Cross Canteen classes. Mrs. Downey and Mrs. Ridge, as area co-ordinators supervise the work of forty-eight district chairmen and eight township chairmen. Thousands of clubwomen are serving as district chairmen and block workers and as members or chairmen of defense committees in the OCD Women's Division under the general supervision of Mrs. Arnholter.

The duties of the District President have been multiplied many times over because of the defense program, and the president has served and is serving actively as an appointed member on both the Indianapolis and Marion County Civilian Defense Councils, three Red Cross executive committees and the executive committee of the County Defense Stamps and Bond organization.

Endorsing wholeheartedly the belief that more women, capable women, should seek public office, clubwomen took an active part in the primary election this spring. A number served as precinct committeewomen. Seventh district clubwomen point with pride to the fact that Mrs. Arcada Balz, past District President, and Mrs. Nellie Downey were highly successful in being nominated as candidates for the Legislature. Mrs. Balz is a candidate for the office of joint senator from Marion and Johnson counties and Mrs. Downey for office of state representative.

During the winter the Seventh District American Citizenship department sponsored political science tours of clubwomen who attended regularly meetings of the units of city and county government. These proved successful in awakening interest in the functions and administration of local government.

The community has been made well aware of Federation activities through five regular broadcasts a month, two of which featured the Seventh District Chorus. In addition there were many special broadcasts. In September the District President formed a Radio Council of representatives of all women's organizations.

The newspapers were also very cooperative in publicizing Federation activities and the District received praiseworthy mention through seven editorials, as well as through ten front page articles.

The motion picture committee headed by Mrs. E. L. Burnett and Mrs. Emma Kominers did outstanding work by placing 16 patriotic short films in a large number of neighborhood theaters. One of the highlights of their activities was the showing of the "Sons of Liberty" to two hundred refugees who enthusiastically enjoyed the historical film. Twenty-two clubs reported 41 motion picture discussions and programs, indicating a great increase of interest in this subject.

The Cooperation for Blind Chairman, Mr. Thomas Hindman broke all records by selling $2,100.00 worth of articles made by the blind, an increase of $800.00 over last year. She also obtained $42.00 for the Blind Memorial Fund.

Each department reported increased interest in Federation work. The American Home Department headed by Mrs. Floyd Doddridge reported that eighty percent of the clubs were opening or closing their meetings with prayer; eight clubs had American Home programs, and there were twenty-three programs on the subject of nutrition, thirteen on financial management, fifteen on consumer problems and ten on spiritual life. In the Fall a Christian Family Institute was given in one of the large downtown churches with the Seventh District as a cooperating sponsor. Over 150 people attended the discussions some of which were lead by district clubwomen.

Mrs. Trevor Geddes, American Citizenship Chairman, reported 208 programs on citizenship. Her department sponsored a mock naturalization examination by six newly naturalized citizens, and presented Normal Silbiger, Austrian refugee, in a program attended by 250 people. The district went on record as condemning the sale and distribution of anti-Catholic and anti-Semitic literature. A political science library was established by the City Library. Plans are being made for a youth demonstration and civilian defense parade on the Fourth of July. These plans received the approval of Governor Schricker and State Director of Defense Clarence Jackson.

The Education Department headed by Mrs. Burton Knight reported eight educational programs in clubs and thirty-six discussion programs in the E. S. O. groups. Six organizations reported student loans totalling $3,384. One club contributed $400 to the Children's Museum for educational purposes. The Student Loan committee sponsored a concert by Miss Elza Marques for the benefit of the state Latin-American Scholarship fund; $45.00 was raised. The District President is serving on the Citizens' School committee to choose candidates for a non-partisan, non-political school board.

The Fine Arts Department under Mrs. Laurence Hayes reported seventy-six art programs, 275 literature programs, ninety-two music programs, ten drama programs and forty-five poetry programs; also organization of a State Federation of Poetry clubs by the district Poetry chairman. Sixteen clubs reported Bible Literature programs. $150.00 and $25.00 purchase prizes were reported by the Woman's Department Club and the Seventh District Executive Board; also purchase of season ticket to the Indianapolis Symphony. The Chorus raised $108 to pay a trained director.

Increased interest in South America was noted and 80 international relations programs were reported by Mrs. J. E. Barcus, chairman.

Over thirty programs on legislation were reported by Mrs. C. J. Ancker. The district took action protesting to Congress regarding passage of Joint Income tax legislation and also took action protecting the introducing of a resolution of the General Federation advocating removal of taxation on oleomargarine.

The Public Welfare department headed by Mrs. E. H. Niles reported forty-two public welfare programs and $6,579.66 expended for health projects; four delinquency programs, ten on child welfare, and one on mental hygiene and one on Women in Industry.

The National Defense department reported participation in the Aluminum campaign, the U. S. O. Victory Book and Salvage and Conservation drives. Junior clubwomen cooperated in recruiting aviation cadets and one Junior club sold or purchased $26,000 worth of Stamps and Bonds. One thousand dollars was spent on Americanization work by the Council of Jewish Women.

Hundreds of women enrolled in Red Cross courses and classes. Five Home Nursing classes and one First Aid class were formed by individual clubs. One club adopted a British child, and is the Indianapolis representative of the National "Save a Child" organization.

The conservation committee planted a Federation lane of flowering crab in a city botanical garden; also planted oak trees honoring each of the past district presidents.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Excellent and informative programs were presented by the National Defense, Education, Motion Picture, Legislation, Public Welfare, American Citizenship, Fine Arts, International Relations, American Home, Conservation and Rural-Cooperation Committees of the district.

We increased our memberships by four new clubs. Two clubs added 151 new members.

For the most part the Seventh District has had a most successful year.

EIGHTH DISTRICT

MRS. FRANK WALDO, Anderson, President

Our theme for the district; a Unity of Purpose toward a goal of Character, Culture, and Citizenship through Club Federation has reflected an increased interest in our great responsibility of promoting educational programs and fitting our time and talent into our nation-wide objective of winning this war and obtaining a lasting peace and in preserving the fine arts of living.

Delaware county reports three new clubs in universal membership, and Madison county one, making a gain of four, in the district for a total of forty-six.

All counties observed the World Day of Prayer on Armistice Day and many are observing the one minute of prayer daily at six o'clock, which proves that prayer is a living and vital thing, in this greatest of all wars.

Decatur and Muncie had large defense meetings with our Mrs. Jaqua of Winchester, our National Defense Chairman as their speaker and all counties have contributed to national defense work in various ways, as buying stamps and bonds, blood donors, and in organizing classes for nursing and first aid work, and helped individually and collectively in Red Cross, Public welfare, an civic drives, in fact, helping to build a better tomorrow.

The District convention at Decatur, September 24, with Adams county's efficient president, Mrs. Milo Black, and her fine committee as hostess in the Presbyterian church was a delightful meeting well attended, and our State President and Vice-President gave us very helpful and instructive addresses pertaining to our club work.

The executive meeting held in Muncie at the Y. W. C. A. April 28, revised the district constitution to make it conform to the State Constitution and the revision will be read and voted on at the district convention in Anderson this fall.

The executive body voted to buy a War Bond of $25.00 which will mature in twelve years with money in the treasury.

Your president has attended the National Convention at

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Atlantic City, State convention at French Lick, District Convention at Decatur, Council Meeting at Indianapolis, three county conventions and visited many clubs.

In finishing my second year as president, and beginning my last one, I wish to thank all the officers and club members who have contributed in such a beautiful way to the success of the work. Let's make next year a Banner Year.

Sixteen members of the district attended the State Convention; three the National Convention, and two the Council meeting in January at Washington, D. C.

For lack of space I am not to give a statistical report, but will say the work as reported by the Blue Blanks from all clubs shows a growing interest in their many activities with war service work taking the lead.

NINTH DISTRICT

MRS. ALDEN BAKER, Westfield, President

All eight counties were represented with a large attendance at the annual council meeting, called at Westfield, Hamilton county last Fall. Plans for the year's work were outlined and arrangements made for the district convention to be in Delphi, Carroll county in October. At this convention new officers were elected. Our State President, Mrs. Ahlgren and our State first vice-president, Mrs. W. H. Lykins each gave us a fine address.

Frankfort, Clinton county was hostess to the annual Fine Arts Festival. Both the exhibit and fine musical program arranged by Clinton county were worthwhile. In the afternoon, Mrs. Fred L. Pettijohn, state chairman of Drama, gave a very interesting program.

Two very worth while council meetings were held at the home of the first vice-president, Mrs. E. D. Hodge, for the department chairmen and defense chairmen.

Ninth District has very successfully carried out the thought adopted in the Fall: "Follow Vision With Service"—feeling this was a time when service would be needed. All clubs continued to do work in most of the departments but gave especial service in the defense program. The president appointed Mrs. E. D. Hodge as district defense chairman, and also a district chairman for each of the divisions. The counties were soon organized and ready for work. Defense Councils were held in each county with Mrs. Hodge attending. A silk flag one foot in height was given to each county chairman, 5,000 registration cards were printed and 1,000 letters of instruction were sent out to clubs. Many classes on First Aid, Home Nursing and all vocational work were carried on; several instructors from among club members. The Westfield Woman's Club sponsored a Red Cross sewing unit, and in this small community 2,400 garments were made; Arcadia Club, 235 garments and Inter Se of Noblesville,

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

160 garments were made by club members. Zionsville club reported 20 sweaters knitted. Clinton county reported $2,065 for Bonds and Stamps among members. All Clubs reported Red Cross co-operation. Five thousand Victory books reported, Clinton county leading with 3,041 and Tipton with 1,049. In the departments 85 Forums were reported, the reading of 1,196 books and 103 poems. Howard county received first prize of district for poem, Boone county second. Tipton county reported fourteen programs given on the reading course "Eyes South"—this being chosen as a National Defense program. They also reported joint program with High School during National Book week. The president of E. S. O., Tipton, presented a large silk flag to the library. A large silk flag was presented to the Montgomery Federation of the N. R. C. and in accepting it Mrs. Eugene Bailey dedicated it to the boys in service from that county.

A total of $1,611.67 was spent for Public Welfare, Clinton county alone reporting $1,259.02. Blind sales $2,187.10, and $61.00 for the Blind Memorial Fund, Boone county led with $556.07, one club, The Bay View of Lebanon selling $328.—Tipton county a close second—$460.00. Hamilton county 100% in Memorial Fund, every club contributing $1.00. Reports showed an increase in Penny Art Fund and Musical Pennies. Many Art and Musical programs reported, Crawfordsville had travelling Art Exhibits two weeks in public library. Kokomo Department Club reported 34 pilgrimages, 13 guest speakers. Clinton county—14 exhibits and 10 speakers, $62.00 spent. Education was not neglected, a student loan was Fountain county's project, all clubs contributing to this. They also stressed Bible reading and church attendance. Many Radio broadcasts given. The Lemrac Club of Carmel, Hamilton county, reported $150.00 local student loan raised. Woman's Literary Club of Noblesville, Hamilton county, won second place in Star Program Building contest.

Many thanks to all in the Ninth District. Your loyalty and co-operation has been such that it will always remain with me as a happy memory. May success increase as you go forward with your new leader.

TENTH DISTRICT

MRS. E. E. FIFIELD, President

Tenth District chose National Defense, now War Service, as its objective for this year. All clubs have made it their outstanding department of work on their programs. The reports of all county conventions showed splendid co-operation and active interest. The Flag has been displayed at all club meetings, the singing of the National Anthem, the Flag Salute and the American Creed have opened all club meetings.

Reports show that much work has been done by club women in Red Cross, civilian Defense Councils and many have purchased stamps and bonds. Indiana Harbor Woman's Club has purchased $3,250.00 in Defense Bonds, and the Fowler Woman's Club are bringing the Mobile Blood Bank to Fowler in June.

The clubs in the District have done some work in every department. National Defense, American Citizenship, International Relations, and American Home head the list. Literature with 217 book reviews and 29 Original Poems comes next. Many clubs report plays given by their members. E. S. O. shows increase in reading members. Music has been given a place on all programs, and we are very proud of our District Chorus. Seventy-five programs have been given to Art. Tenth District received prize at State Convention in Indianapolis for outstanding work in Art. Lake county held a poetry contest for which prizes were awarded at the County Convention. One hundred Institutes and Forums have been reported. In the Department of Conservation many clubs report planting of trees and shrubs. Honors go to Tippecanoe county for the beautifying of the levee, an undeveloped section of their city, West Lafayette. They have planted trees, shrubs, put in walks and made a beautiful park that all may enjoy.

Community Service and Public Welfare have also been given much time and considerable money has been in these. All clubs have participated in "Books for Buddies." Radio has risen to prominent place in Tenth District with 139 hours of Broadcasting reported. One club in Lake county reports 29 broadcasts of 15 minutes each. Sixty-four Reciprocity meetings reported. Clubwoman magazine has reported two clubs 100%. Sorosis Club, Lafayette and Dunes Federated Club, Gary. Thank you, Tenth District for your splendid co-operation in the past year.

ELEVENTH DISTRICT

MRS. HENRY C. NIEMANN, Logansport, President

District Project—Student Loan fund placed in Taylor University in honor of the District President. This loan is placed in two installments of $25.00 each.

Some of the projects and special activities of the Eleventh

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

District were curtailed this year due to war restrictions and tire rationing. Among these was the postponement of the District Art Festival. This was to have been held in Logansport with Cass County women as hostesses. Individual counties were then asked to sponsor a festival in their own locality. Several counties did this.

Educational Institute, Manchester College. Wabash county assisted in sponsoring this.

District Poetry Chairman responded to state request for poetry for state contest, urging the district women to cooperate.

Three president's council meetings were held this year, with a good representation from the district each time.

Junior Club Honors—Tri Chi and Delta Tau of Winamac won honors in the Star Program Building Contest for Juniors.

Penny Art Fund—Clubs responded practically 100% to the Penny Art Fund.

Due to the inaccuracy of the blue blank reports an exact amount of money expended for Community Service is not obtainable. Over three thousand dollars was spent stressing the departments of Welfare Work, Community Service, Conservation, and Co-operation for the Blind. Grant county leads in sales of articles made by the blind, with $888.68 to her credit. Special emphasis was laid on this project this year with the following amounts to the credit of three Grant County Clubs. Zeta Tau of Jonesboro credited with $266.58; Fairmount Department Club, $236.42, and the Department Club of Marion with $165.00. These clubs are surely to be commended for this fine piece of work.

Conservation was stressed with many trees, shrubs and bulbs planted.

All clubs report publicity chairmen.

Institutes and Forums were numerous and becoming a more common form of program each year.

Literature, Drama and Music rate high on number of club programs.

War and Defense work has been given great importance in all clubs this year. Sale of Defense Stamps and Bonds have been given a place in practically all club meetings. Nearly every club has a stamp chairman, who brings stamps to each meeting to make the purchase of them convenient to club women. This district is credited with $10,000.00 to date.

Red Cross sewing and training in nurse's classes, first aid, etc., are being emphasized by all clubs. The exact number of garments made by our district women would be a sizeable one.

Perhaps the outstanding achievement in Club Extension, this year was the organization of a Woman's Department Club in Huntington County. The membership list totaled about two hundred and fifty on the opening day.

All seven counties in this district held outstanding county conventions this year. It was my pleasure to attend them all. The reports of accomplishments were outstanding. The conventions are always a source of pride to the District President.

TWELFTH DISTRICT

MRS. CLINTON BLOOM, Albion, President

Time marches on and again our clubs must give an account of their year's accomplishments.

Our project was National Defense, and we are all agreed that International Relations, American Citizenship and the American Home must certainly be taken into consideration when we plan our National Defense. I find those three Departments have been given more time than any of the others.

International Relations leads with 194 programs. Club women are beginning to realize the need of a closer relationship with and a better understanding of our South American neighbors. Thus a number of clubs have taken the "Pan-American Tour."

It is impossible to think of National Defense without considering our Welfare Department. We have been welfare minded to the extent of $925.60. This does not include the sales for the blind nor the Memorial Fund. For those we spent $1,324.38.

The club women as organizations have purchased $3,224.00 worth of stamps and bonds. Quite a number of the clubs have organized their groups into 100% clubs in the purchase of Stamp Books. Many have joined First Aid classes, others are knitting and sewing needed garments. Most of the clubs have co-operated in the salvaging of aluminum, scrap and paper, in the conservation of food and in the planting of fruit trees and Victory Gardens. Another valuable defense project is the establishing of Blood Banks in our local hospitals.

While we have been busy with these things we have not neglected the cultural and spiritual side. One hundred ninety-six women have read the Clubwoman (we have four 100% clubs), we have reviewed 56 books and given 123 programs to the study of Literature, Poetry and Drama.

I was much pleased for the increased interest shown in the study of the Bible. Perhaps we are beginning to realize that since man has a three sided nature, it is not wise to cultivate only the physical and mental. When the spiritual side is likewise cultivated, then and then only, can we become fully developed and well rounded beings.

We held our Fine Arts Festival at the Woman's Club in Fort Wayne, Allen County being our hostess. We contributed over $35.00 to the Penny Art Fund and $5.29 for music appreciation. We also gave $99.05 to the Student Loan.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

We held our District Council in Albion and our Annual Convention in Columbia City. Mrs. Ahlgren, Mrs. Lykins and Mrs. Allen lent inspiration at that meeting.

Keeping in mind our National Defense project, I spoke at our six County Conventions on the spiritual need of the hour. My subject "Let Us Rise Up and Build" was taken from Neh. 2:18.

Space limits the complete report of our many activities. It has been a busy and I believe a valuable club year. Our next may be more difficult, but I ask for Miss Smith the same loyal co-operation and friendliness that you have given me for she will merit them I am sure. I shall always be glad for the privilege of being your president.

THIRTEENTH DISTRICT

MRS. P. M. BRIDENTHRALL, Leesburg, President

The Thirteenth District has completed another year of fine Federation work. During the year we lost 4 clubs and gained 6 new ones and 1 Affiliate club went into Universal Membership, making a membership gain of 312. We now have 85 clubs with a membership of 3,614.

Held 3 Executive Board Meetings with a full attendance of District Officers, County Presidents and District Department Chairmen, to outline plans for the year's work and also make plans for the District Council.

The District was hostess for the Winona Federation Day and we were happy to have almost 300 guests who enjoyed a fine program including a Concert by the Petrie Band.

The Council Meeting was held in Leesburg August 21, with a full attendance and the Department Chairmen gave their plans for the year to the Counties and the new Department of National Defense was explained.

The District Convention in Elkhart September 23 was well attended and Mrs. Ahlgren, State President, Mrs. Lykins, State Vice President, and Dr. C. T. Malon were the Speakers. The projects of Federation Fine Arts, National Defense, and Co-operation for the Blind were chosen.

The seven counties held their Conventions this Spring with very interesting and instructive programs and the reports given show much has been accomplished in all the Departments. The compiled reports of the counties show 225 programs on American Citizenship with many of the clubs giving the Flag Salute at their regular meetings. Two hundred eighty-seven Book Reviews. All clubs have music at their regular meetings and some have had very fine special Musical Programs. Eight Oil Paintings were purchased as gifts to schools. The Penny Art

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

DEPARTMENTS AND COMMITTEES

DUTIES OF DEPARTMENT, DIVISION AND COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

It shall be the duty of every State, District and County Department, Division and Committee Chairman, immediately, on receiving notice of her appointment, to inform herself as to the program of work being promoted by our Federation. She should read the Year Book; procure and study all available material from General Federation Headquarters (1734 N. Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.); especially should she study the pages pertaining to her respective activity in recent issues of The Indiana Clubwoman. Every issue in our magazine carries larger and more far-reaching messages in its printed pages than could possibly be carried by letter. Read them as though they were addressed to you personally. Preparation should include also, a study of the geographical area for which appointment has been accepted, and a conference with public officials or other persons particularly interested in the same line of work.

After this comprehensive study, which should be made as quickly as possible, each Chairman will be prepared for the instructions pertaining to the Federation program that will come to her from her superior officer. This she should harmonize with the Clubs of her community, with public officials, with the needs of her locality, and then proceed to work with all her ability to accomplish the object. It may be a Public Welfare or Health project that will be made possible through the co-operation of all local welfare agencies; or an Art project promoted by art associations and art lovers of a community; or an Educational project enlisting the interest of schools, libraries and students of all kinds. It may be a Citizenship celebration or a series of International Relations round-table discussions; but whatever phase of Federation work is desired, the Chairman by her knowledge and active interest should be associated in the minds of the community and the club women with that particular thing.

Department, Division and Committee Chairmen should realize that the best possible way to get their information to their co-workers is through the pages of The Indiana Clubwoman.

Material for Clubwoman from State Department Chairmen must be sent by the 15th of the month to First Vice-President, who is Dean of Departments.

Chairmen should answer letters promptly; seek to know their co-workers personally; commend the valuable work being done by them and also feel the responsibility to talk about their subject as well as to know it.

Annual report should be made at her respective Convention.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Each County Department Chairman shall prepare a written report and forward a copy to her District Department Chairman; each District Department Chairman shall send a copy of her report to her State Department and Division Chairman. State Department and Division Chairmen shall file typewritten copies of their reports (not to exceed 450 words) with the State Recording Secretary, Press and Publicity Chairman, and the First Vice-President on or before the Annual State Convention. All Chairmen shall report to their successors all work undertaken and all work accomplished. On December 15, and also six weeks before National meeting. State Department Chairmen shall report work accomplished to their respective General Federation Chairmen. All literature received by outgoing officer will be turned over to the incoming official, since General Federation literature, particularly, belongs to the office, not the individual. This is in keeping with our Constitution Policy which is being stressed so constantly in our Federation activities.

"It shall be the duty of the Parliamentarian to attend meetings only upon invitation to do so. It shall be the duty of the Parliamentarian to advise the presiding officer, to the end that the rules of the organization shall be obeyed, and to give such other assistance as is required. She never makes a decision, and neither the presiding officer nor the assembly are obliged to accept the ruling of the parliamentarian. She assists, and guides, with information, as unostentatiously as possible."—Mrs. Emma A. Fox, G.F.W.C. Parliamentarian.

DEPARTMENT OF AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP

MRS. GEORGE L. RUSSELL, Gary, Chairman

Theme: National Defense—Every Citizen a True American.

The year just passed has been one of the most important in the history of our nation. It has been a year during which the fate of our country has depended upon the good citizenship of every American. This department has felt the responsibility placed upon it for the promotion of that citizenship. With this responsibility in mind, every effort has been made by your chairman to impress the clubs and Club members with the importance of individual as well as organized effort toward true Americanism.

Two special projects were promoted by the department, both of which were successfully accomplished. A bronze plaque, "Spirit of America" by Viquesney was purchased with free will offerings from each of the thirteen districts in the state. This plaque, in high relief, depicting a figure carrying the American flag forward in face of all odds, was placed in the rotunda of the State Capitol building in Indianapolis at a public ceremony on November 10. During this ceremony at which your chairman presided, the plaque was presented to the people of Indiana and accepted by Governor Henry F. Schricker. Radio Station WIRE of Indianapolis gave fifteen minutes on the air for the actual presentation and acceptance. Other highlights of the program were the unveiling by Mrs. Felix T. McWhirter, honorary president, I. F. C., greetings by Mrs. Oscar Ahlgren, President, I. F. C. and Sculptor Viquesney; address by Dr. C. T. Malan, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and music by the Brass Choir, Arsenal Technical High School of Indianapolis.

State Political Science Forums were held in three different sections of the state. At Indiana University, Bloomington; Manchester College, North Manchester; and Calumet Center, Indiana University, East Chicago. Programs at each were identical, including speakers on the subjects of government and citizenship. The estimated total attendance at the three forums was 500.

Throughout the state the districts, counties and clubs have been carrying out the program of the department. District reports follows:

FIRST DISTRICT—No Report.

SECOND DISTRICT—Much enthusiasm was shown in this department throughout the entire year. Many programs and forums, used citizenship as their themes. Owen county and Knox county each report programs and flag salute. District went on record in advocating caution regarding sale and distribution of anti-catholic and anti-semitic literature. Realizing the purpose of such un-American activities will aid in defeating disunity. A political science library established at City Library.

Plans being made for a youth demonstration and Civilian Defense Parade for the Fourth of July. Governor Schricker and Clarence Jackson of the State Office of Civilian Defense have expressed their desire to co-operate and urged similar demonstrations in other communities as well as in Indianapolis.

right of franchise. Dedicated a flag to men in the service and one to the public library.

TENTH DISTRICT—Most clubs in the tenth district report that they have done their bit in the line of Red Cross work, sewing and so forth. A few, like Lake county, have caught the real spirit of Citizenship and have taken time to study the machinery of government and have listened to good lectures on kindred subjects. The Dunes Club of Beverly Shores reports that it is planning, in connection with the League of Women Voters, a thirty minute study period on matters of legislaion, taxation and so forth. Newton county writes that the club took part in the naturalization ceremony in the Kentland Court House. Kosciusko county reports that 24 clubs report 17 hours spent on "Citizenship." Fourteen programs and 15 roll call responses.

Your chairman has been guest speaker at a number of organizations outside the Federation, has kept in close touch with her General Federation chairman, attended and reported at two state board meetings, as well as the February Council meeting, and has diligently and conscientiously answered all letters. She has met with a State Committee on Citizenship of the Indiana District Kiwanis in Indianapolis on four different occasions. A program is being promoted as an outcome of these meetings toward a state-wide citizenship project sponsored by the Federation of Kiwanis. She has spoken on three broadcasts over WIND, Gary, on "Women in Defense," "Good Citizenship as Sponsored by I. F. C.", and "Civilian Defense during an Air Raid."

The spirit of co-operation which has been enjoyed by your chairman from members and clubs has been very gratifying. The year closes with the knowledge that clubwomen and good citizens are synonomous.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

DEPARTMENT OF AMERICAN HOME

MRS. HENRY P. HUMPHREY, Osgood, Chairman

Return to Religion has been our slogan this past year because, when our National President, Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, appointed our own Mrs. Poston, National American Home Chairman, and asked her to put on a Religious Crusade, we in Indiana wanted to do our part.

The reports received are splendid. There is a decided increase in Church attendance. Many of our clubs have appointed a club Chaplain and are opening their meetings with scripture and prayer.

When we started our return to Religion we did not realize that we were training for war just the same as the boys are today. We did not at that time know that every home would be bombed, not with material damage and civilian casualties, but with emotional bombs. But today we know that we need this inner strength, this Faith and Hope that only God can give. France with one of the finest armies in the world failed, but England, with morale its greatest asset is still standing.

Some of the requests from this department were: read the 11th chapter of Hebrews, the Faith Chapter; go to Church every Sunday; United Prayers on Armistice Day and New Year's Day; have Grace before meals and Family Prayers; review at least one Religious Book; assist your Church in every way possible. Humanity cries out in the hour of need. Never in all history have we needed Religion as we do today. Let the Federated Club Women stand as examples. Let us show the world what it means to be able to take refreshments at the Inn of our Faith and then go forward with New Hope. Do you pause every evening at six and offer that little prayer of Thanks and ask for Guidance?

May I at this time express my sincere thank to my Division Chairmen, the District and County Chairmen, and to Mrs. E. I. Poston and Mrs. F. T. McWhirter. They all have been an inspiration and help to me.

Next year let us resolve to do a little bit better work for Christ than we ever did before. Remember Religions is "Home-made." We want to make a survey of our schools as to Religious Education. It never occurred to the men who wrote the constitution that any system of education could fail to include Religion. They thought that Religion, Morality and Knowledge were necessary to good government. Our schools are better housed today than ever before, but some of them have lost what our ancestors deemed to be the very soul of education, Religion.

I have written one Pageant "Return to Religion," two institutes. One American Homes, the other Women and Defense. Have answered the many requests, have appeared on Club and Church Programs and also sent out many requests to the District Chairmen during the year. The Division Reports follow:

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Division of Spiritual Values and Family Relationships MRS. SHIRLEY H. GUNNELS, Fowler, Chairman

With pride this department presents its report. It represents loyalty and cooperation in accomplishing Federation objectives, benefiting not only Indiana but every community represented. Brief space prevents a complete report.

Slogan, "Go to Church Sunday." Theme, "The Most Effective Antidote For This Troubled World Is Religion and Mutually Solving the Problems of Living Together." Major Objectives: Loyal to the church of your choice; Assist in church programs; Advocate Prayers for Peace on Armistice Day, New Year's Day, Day of World's Prayer and other days as deemed advisable by community and leaders; One minute Prayer at 6:00 p. m., daily; An understanding of how to get along with other members of the family.

Many clubs used: Pageant, "Return to Religion" and Forum "Democracy," by Mrs. Henry P. Humphrey; Institutes: "America Must Stand Firmly For the Free Way of Life;" "What Religion Means to the Individual and to the Home;" "Religion and Democracy;" "Mobilize Moral and Spiritual Values" and "Family Relations" by your chairman.

Chairmen of the Second, Fourth, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth districts have reported the following: Clubwomen are reading and studying the Bible, individually, and in groups, 87% of clubwomen are attending church each Sunday (an increase in church attendance); 62% are church leaders; Church bells are ringing at 6:00 p. m., reminding women to observe one minute of prayer; Many clubs are making religious surveys in schools (many schools have Bible taught and credits are given); County and district conventions emphasized Mediations and Prayers, and many included "Return to Religion" as one of their projects; Institutes; Informal discussions; pageants; Observed Days of Prayer; Fine Religious programs; responses, regularly on Spiritual Values and Family Relations; Many clubwomen studied "Christian Roots of Democracy;" Book Reviews; Donated religious books to public libraries; Talks on Religious Values before different groups; Prayers and Devotional services at many club meetings; co-operated whenever possible with churches, Sunday Schools, Bible Schools and other groups.

Highlights from reports: "Clubmembers are seriously thinking of their religious life." "Clubwomen are reading the Bible daily and are studying it." "One club a perfect Sunday School Attendance." "It's safe to say that every clubwoman prays daily for peace." "There is a new appreciation of permanent values. Some of it may be hysteria because of lost security but basically the implications of religion have been deeply entrenched." "Bible study to be added to the curriculum of the High Schools of South Bend." "One club attends a community Bible class, weekly." "Ministers conduct chapel services, regularly, in public schools."

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Orchids to Mrs. Poston, Mrs. Ahlgren, Mrs. Lykins, Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. McWhirter for the religious inspirations they have instigated.

Thanks to all who have cooperated with me in this most worthwhile cause.

Division of Family Security

MRS. EDWARD D. HODGE, Frankfort, Chairman

Key thought: "Back to the Faith of Our Fathers."

When the Indiana Club Women pledged their co-operation with the National Defense Program, one began to think that since our divisions were going off this spring, club women would devote their entire time to the defense effort and little attention would be given to the Division of Family Security; but that didn't prove true. After the "Program, Project and Plan" booklet came out, and the 100 copies of the Family Security outlines were mailed out to district chairman, more requests for the outline came from club members. One hundred fifty extra copies were made and immediate attention given to each request.

"The American Home is the first line of Defense of the Nation."

"Security is the Strength of that line."

The most significant work of the Family Security Division this year, has been done through well planned institutes with speakers. Touching as they did upon the five essentials which were emphasized in the Family Security Outline: Spiritual, Financial, Physical, Social and Educational Security.

Reports from eight of the districts show that the trend has been marked toward greater emphasis on the value of guidance in the Spiritual Security of home life. Special recognition should go to the 4-6-and-9th district.

Financial Security were themes dealt with by many groups through discussions and forums of a practical nature; also used as responses pertaining to the purchasing of stamps and Bonds.

Other district chairmen state: "We are sorry we can give you no report on Family Security. The activities of the women's clubs have been devoted to National Defense through training classes, such as: First aid, home nursing, nutrition, recreation, sewing, knitting, canning, victory gardens, etc." Isn't that a big program that ties into the physical, social and educational part of our American Home program? Every member of the family accepting his responsibility for the making of Family Security.

The year has passed quickly and your chairman for Family Security feels deeply gratified over the response to her requests for club reports, and expresses her sincere appreciation to all who co-operated so splendidly with the work. This being my last report on the Division of Family Security, may I say in these words:

“Combinations of Faith, Good works, Stand as Hope of a Troubled World.”

Division of Consumer Education

MRS. ODETTE GLADYS ÉLWELL, Rushville, Chairman

Slogan: “Human Defense from Knowledge.”

Consumer Education has taken on a new dress during the year. When the study outline was made last summer we were especially interested in arousing the interest of the buying public in the quality and kinds of materials to which we were going to have to become accustomed. In order to buy wisely and take the best care of the materials we purchase we must read the labels.

Since sending these study outlines and getting the work started in the clubs we have enlarged our scope and made a study of the problems confronting the consumer in a country at war.

The clubs have taken this study seriously as reported by the district chairmen and reviewed under the heading of Consumer Problems in the Department of National Defense.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

MARY L. MATTHEWS, Lafayette, Chairman

The following reports come from the chairmen in this department who have done such excellent work this past year. While education has perhaps not been uppermost in our minds this past year yet much has been done to further the work of this department.

The following summaries show the interest club women have taken in education.

Division of Adult Education

MRS. L. L. CALDWELL, Hammond

Copies of the outline of the Division of Adult Education were sent to each District and County Chairman at the beginning of the club year. Other suggestions and material were sent on request. Only partial reports have been received from the districts as follows:

The consensus of the District Chairmen seems to be that every one is so busy in defense work that it is hard to get a definite report on activities. The reports received indicate that the districts are co-operating in the defense set-up which includes the greater part of the Objectives outlined in the Booklet of Programs-Projects-Plans.

Division of Library Service MRS. ARDEN HAY, Hanna

Not only books for those who read, the districts have endeavored to create an interest in reading in those who do not read. "Joy of Reading" by Theodore Roosevelt has aided in this effort. Division of Public Instruction

MRS. WARNER OVERFIELD, Veedersburg

As Democracy fights for its very life in the present world-wide conflict, Public Instruction stands in the fore-ranks of its defenders.

This Division, realizing the increasing need during the war emergency of closer co-operation between the schools and the community and an all-out National Defense spirit of loyalty and patriotism, has asked the Chairmen to study more closely the curricula of schools in order to develop to the fullest, useful skills leading to service in the community. Following the outline of this Division, students have been taught citizenship, tolerance, love of country, respect for the flag, and a deeper understanding of American ideals.

National Education week was observed through school, radio and club programs; numerous day and night classes have been planned for the convenience of students employed during the day; problem children have been studied and aided. One District helped to organize a P. T. A. and others co-operated with Boy and Girl Scouts, 4-H Clubs and P. T. A. Hobbies and health programs were sponsored. Each school was asked to stress religious training and conduct oratorical contests. One District reports following the suggested topics in the Program, Project and Plan Book. Physical training for defense courses has been stressed with credits given. Stamp clubs were organized in schools and bonds bought by contributions. One high school reports a defense club which only has the requirement, in order to be a member, of buying at least one 10-cent defense stamp every Thursday; then, led by the school band, they march to the post office where the purchases are made. Students have collected paper, aluminum and old stamps in defense work.

The Districts have combined their efforts to make Indiana an outstanding State in National Defense. Your Chairman has suggested programs and activities to her District Chairmen, and follow-up letters* have been mailed throughout the year. My thanks to the district chairmen.

Character Education

MRS. JOHN W. TURNER, Rural Route 3, Crown Point

The last bulwark of defense for democracy and the America we love is Christianity—the faith and character that Christ can put into the hearts and relationships of men.

Committee on Student Loans

MISS EVELYN CRAIG, Vevay

The Student Loan Funds of the Indiana Federation of Clubs have made substantial progress the past year, the funds now totaling $25,064.69. One hundred and nine girls received help during the year and twenty boys, in colleges where the funds were not requested by girl students.

The Indiana Federation of Clubs has been particularly fortunate in the administration of its Student Loan Funds. The funds are given in trust to twenty-one colleges of the state and are administered under a signed contract with the Federation. Under this contract the colleges make the loans, collect the principal and interest, and pay the interest annually to the state committee which is composed of a chairman and a member from each of the thirteen districts of the state. The Federation, in turn, guarantees to the clubs the permanence of their student loans by agreeing to replace from this interest any funds that might be lost under this contract.

All moneys are loaned to worthy girl students, preferably juniors and seniors, attending college at the institution, to enable them to continue their studies at the institution. A negotiable promissory note is executed by the student receiving the loan and secured by such additional signatures as the college may deem necessary. The note bears 3% interest from date until maturity, 5% per annum after maturity, and shall not be for a longer period than five years. The colleges, having the responsibility of collecting the principal and interest, use the greatest care in placing the loans. During the sixteen years since the establishment of the Federation's Student Loan Funds only three funds of fifty dollars each have been lost.

Student Loan Fund Plan

THE PLAN: Any individual, or club, county or district organization may establish its own loan fund by paying not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) to any Indiana College that the club may choose. The payments may be made in installments.

The money is given in trust to the college and is the club's own fund. The club chooses the college at which it wishes to establish its loan fund and selects a name by which its fund may be known.

Checks are made payable to the college selected, or to the Chairman of the Student Loan Committee, and are sent to the Student Loan Chairman. She gives the club credit on the records of the Federation and sends the check to the designated college with instructions.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

These loan funds are lent to worthy students, preferably to Juniors and Seniors (girls) who give a promissory note which bears 3% interest until maturity and 5% thereafter.

The interest reverts to the treasury of the Federation and is added to the Educational Loan Funds at Indiana University and Purdue University and is used to reimburse any funds that may be lost, thus assuring the permanence of funds.

Any individual or club that does not wish to invest in a complete loan, may contribute sums of any amount to a State Student Loan Fund, whose name, and the college designated may be chosen at the State Convention.

Latin American Fellowship

MRS. GEORGE W. JAQUA, Chairman

MRS. EDWIN I. POSTON

MRS. OSCAR A. AHLGREN

The committee in whose hands was placed the responsibility for launching the Latin American Fellowship, feels particularly pleased in looking back at the record of its first year. We are proud of the two girls who were selected to receive these fellowships. Indiana clubwomen from many parts of the state have enjoyed the remarkable talent of Elsa Marques, the lovely brunette from Rio de Janeiro, and need no further proof of the worth of this project. Since Katherine Lenore Morgan has been in Mexico for her studies, we are looking forward to her return to her native Indiana with interesting stories and comments about our neighbor to the south.

Because of the war and the fact that this was a new project, contributions to the fund were too small to assure the continuance. So in the spring the committee asked each federated club to send at least one dollar to this fund. The response to date has been good, though not nearly complete. The contributions total slightly under two hundred dollars, only one-third of the amount needed. But we are confident that clubs will respond in larger amounts, realizing that this is a very constructive way to strengthen our hemisphere defenses, by bringing the people closer together in friendly understanding—This is truly a defense project, as well as insurance for a better future for our country and our neighbors. As these fellowships are established and extended, acquaintance with different parts of our country develop, breaking down prejudices of misunderstanding. Where is there a better place for our dollars than investing in friendship for the future, to make more secure the peace to come?

Please send contributions to the State Treasurer, or to the Student Loan chairman, marked for the Latin American Fellowship. Acknowledgment will be made to the club and the funds sent to Indiana university by the Treasurer. We would appreciate receiving as much as possible early in the club year, so that Indiana university may be assured of the continuance of the fellowship.

DEPARTMENT OF FINE ARTS

MRS. JOHN C. LAVENGOOD, South Bend, Chairman

Your chairman closes the year with a feeling of appreciation of the many women who have kept the Fine Arts a vital part of this club year's program. We have not accomplished all original aims but we have adjusted our plans to emergency needs. All of our division chairmen have realized that it is the women of our clubs who must preserve the cultural. They have given freely of their time for forums, talks, endless letters and plans, community work and co-operation in any project that makes for richer living.

The Art Division with Mrs. Walter S. Grow as leader promoted an unusually active celebration of American Art Week which extended through the entire month of November.

Promotion of the Hoosier Salon was recognized by women from over the state, with attendance at a Federation Day Luncheon January 17, in the Riley Room, Claypool Hotel. Two paintings "Isolation" by Randolph Coats, and "November Morning" by George Mock were purchased by the Federation with past P. A. F.

Many paintings have been sold, the Woman's Department Club of Indianapolis purchased a 100 dollar painting at the Salon. Seventh District gave at twenty-five dollar etching purchase prize.

Richmond and Terre Haute opened new art galleries. Mrs. Grow attended both openings.

Many more fine things could be mentioned in this department. Mrs. Grow is always on the job with never ending enthusiasm.

Interest in Drama under our versatile chairman Mrs. Fred L. Pettijohn has increased by leaps and bounds. A hand book on Drama written by our chairman has been widely used by women over our state. The use of pageants and amateur plays has greatly increased. Our drama chairman wrote and produced a period style pageant depicting the history of the Woman's Department Club of Indianapolis. The Indiana Woman's Forum has been served by the Drama Chairman as president. The women of our clubs have put drama into daily living. Our drama chairman has been a constant inspiration to the fine arts chairman.

Music over the state has been carried by the fine arts chairman, due to the illness of Mrs. Meurer. I have made all plans, answered all letters asking for information, taken care of musical pennies from over the state which amounts at this writing to $23.08.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

One use of Musical Pennies for Five Season Tickets to the Indianapolis Symphony has been of great inspiration to our young musicians. This project has been the cause of much extra writing for your fine arts chairman, but our students are worth it.

Community singing has been a part of many clubs with emphasis placed on our patriotic songs. I am happy over our county and district choruses. These play an important part in community morale. Our Seventh District chorus delighted with its singing at Art Federation Day. Many of our music chairmen are musicians themselves of real merit.

The music of our southern neighbors has been studied adding greatly to our appreciation and understanding.

I have followed the music activities over the state by newspaper and know we have not failed.

Perhaps the most outstanding achievement of the Poetry Division under our most efficient chairman, Mrs. Walter Lawson, was our state contest, which brought forth some very fine results. Miss Faye Hodgkin of Evansville winning first with "Love of Country," Daisy Moore Bynum of Lyons and Margery Shelley of New Castle each honorable mention. The fine part of the contest being the many good poems.

All districts report poetry used on nearly all club programs. Outstanding work done by the Pegasus Club of Muncie and the Poets Study Club of Terre Haute. The Seventh District has organized a state federation of poetry clubs which has been most successful. The Progress Club of South Bend sponsored Patrons of Poetry Contest for eighteen counties of northern Indiana, 448 poems were received. Sixty-five dollars in prizes were awarded. Classifications were sonnets, lyrics, humorous, and unclassified. Anthologies were printed and sold.

Literature with Mrs. Ernest Bryant as chairman reports more reading for study, book reviews and literature forums. Much more interest has been shown in Bible reading, in the study of Bible characters and their practical application.

One group made the study of the Psalms their project.

Mrs. Bryant has capably conducted forums book-reviews and helped with many programs.

Women of the Bible have been portrayed with pageants.

Division of Art

MRS. WALTER S. GROW, Indianapolis, Chairman

This year's art activities opened with the presentation of an oil painting by the late Renee Barnes, "Bunnies and the Beast" to the Riley Hospital for Crippled Children, the gift of Mr. Barnes, through the Division of Art of The IFC. Among the many guests present were Mrs. Ahlgren and Governor Schricker.

For clubs interested in art I prepared an eight page folder program. I felt that a study of the religious paintings of the old masters and of their lives was important. These I outlined, and followed with a bibliography. The folder met with such success that libraries in the state asked for three to six copies to be used in their files.

The one outstanding program I asked all clubs to support was "American Art Week." At my invitation Governor Schricker proclaimed American Art Week, the week of November 7. An art luncheon was held in L. S. Ayres Tea Room, Indianapolis, on November 7, at which time the Governor read his proclamation. Afterward the Governor sat for a portrait painting by Simon P. Baus, before an audience of 500 clubwomen, artists and guests.

I was general chairman for Federation Day at the Hoosier Salon, January 19. At the luncheon Mr. Hilton U. Brown spoke on "Art and Memories." The gallery talk following the luncheon was given by Mr. Randolph Coats.

Your chairman has written six magazine articles on art, and have given several broadcasts and numerous talks.

The year closed with an art breakfast at State Convention. As part of the program Mrs. Walter Thompson, Second District Art Chairman, "Rag Artist," made rag paintings of bird life on a huge scrap book. Favors were miniature paintings by Indiana women artists.

Prizes were presented as follows: First prize, oil painting to the Woman's Department Club of Bedford. Second prize, oil, to Woman's Study Club of Michigan City. Painting to Ft. Wayne Woman's Club. Book, "Christ and the Fine Arts" to District Eleven and to Morgan County, District Two. One year subscription to Art Digest to clubs of Brazil.

Honor awards, Polley etchings, to Mrs. Chas. Robinson, Fifth District. Mrs. Gretchen Gerhard, Ninth District, Mary J. Carter, Eleventh District, Mrs. H. E. Tribolet, Twelfth District, Mrs. Harry Askew, Third District, and Mrs. Mabel Myers Fourth District.

In closing let us not forget one of the things our boys are fighting for is the continued appreciation of the Arts and the freedom of their interpretation.

Division of Literature and Bible Literature MRS. ERNEST M. BRYANT, Owensville, Chairman

Splendid reports have come in from clubwomen for their work in Literature and Bible Literature. It is significant to note the preponderance of the Bible in these reports. Significant also is the report from many chairmen that they feel that women are realizing more and more the importance of the Bible, the Church and the Spiritual values of life in the nation. Space does not permit personal recognition of the many fine things that women have been doing. Increased attendance at church services and Bible reading of club women is indeed gratifying. The totaled figures reported from the various clubs in these two points reaches into the thousands. Two clubs deserve special mention, although their names have been withheld from me—one is 100% in church attendance; another is 100% in regular Bible readers. Many clubs have many Sunday School teachers among their members. One County Chairman sent to Moody Bible Institute for the free Bible Reading Calendars for use by her clubwomen. Practically all clubs have used some phase of our program for roll call responses; many have opened with prayer; one president closed her club with a religious thought for the day. Many clubs report using Around the Calendar with the Bible for their programs. Many and varied have been the papers on Literature and Bible Study. Poetry and Drama have been profusely used on club programs. Intistutes have been numerous and on Bible, books and other literary subjects. Many clubs have studied the literary background and contribution of South America. Use has been made of short stories and playlets. The displaying and saluting of the Christian flag by many clubs is commendable. Book Reviews have been numerous and diversified—fiction, biography, travel, and religious and have been given either by professional reviewers or clubwomen themselves.

To the Ninth District go the honors so far as my reports were able to ascertain, for number of books read (1130) number of reviews and number of clubs attending church services.

Your chairman has spoken on many church and club programs promoting Bible programs and is very grateful to each of you for your splendid reports and your pledges for improvement in the work for another year.

The fact that so many of the clubs comment on the curtailing of some of their regular work for the vast need in Defense and Red Cross work is appreciated by your chairman; these needs are very great now in the present emergency, but there is also need for us to bolster our morale by just the type of Spiritual life programs you have been having this year. I therefore urge your continuance and wish you all greater success next year.

Division of Drama

MRS. FRED L. PETTIJOHN, Indianapolis, Chairman

During the past two years drama has developed as a study, a practice, a program, a revealer of talent, a means of presenting club history, a celebration of events, and a concise method, all through plays, pageantry and a general recreation measure. Drama has taught efficiency in amateur production and has given life and color to all club endeavor. There has been closer co-operation between the division of drama and various drama chairmen. More plays have been given, more pageants have been produced and a greater interest in the subject than has been reported or observed than in any previous period. To the Golden Jubilee may be attributed a large per cent of this increase in interest. The preparation and distribution of the Handbook of Drama, by the chairman, opened a ceaseless flow of correspondence along the line of topics suggested in this book. Several clubs studying the South American countries included plays and theatres of those countries.

While the Division of Drama is discontinued for the duration, at least, the work will continue in the clubs so long as clubs continue having meetings. The exchairman of the division is preparing two pageants to be produced by clubs during the coming year. A pageant of Patriotic Theme will be produced in February, which will be available to other organizations after that month.

Division of Poetry

MRS. WALTER LAWSON, Fowler, Chairman

Furnished articles for six numbers of the Clubwoman.

Answered all letters which came to my desk.

Contacted all district chairmen, at least once and in some cases two or three times.

Sponsored poetry contest which began in individual clubs, thence through county and districts to state. I handled the Benton County contest as that county had no poetry chairman. Nine of the thirteen districts entered the final contest. Miss Faye Hodgins of Evansville, First District, won first prize. Margery Shelly, of New Castle, and Daisy Moore Bynum, of Lyons, received honorable mention. The result of the contest and the winning poem appeared in the Indianapolis Star, the News, and the Clubwoman.

District reports showed much interest in the contest. Two groups that I know of study poetry exclusively. One, the Pegasus Poetry Club of Muncie, sent me a fascinating year book, beautiful both in itself, and in the thoughts within it. From the Poets Study Club of Terre Haute, came a fine collection of original poems, also a supplement of verse forms, old and new, by Mrs. Lillian Beck, a member. Miss Mabel Skeen, also a member of this club, is Vico County poetry chairman as well as associate editor of the Kansas City Courier, (poets page).

Consensus of opinion seems to be that under no circumstances, no matter how depressing, should we give up poetry study.

The Hoosier Program Bureau

MRS. E. C. RUMPLER, Indianapolis, Executive Chairman

The Hoosier Program Bureau has held two auditions this past season. Both were well attended and the programs presented were of exceptional merit.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

The Bureau has supplied persons for more than forty meetings. We have talented people to suit every club need and we urge you to use the Bureau.

Kindly report the name of any one whom you think should appear on an audition program so that we may help that person to market his wares. The Bureau was organized for this purpose.

The dates for the 1942-1943 auditions will be announced later.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS DEPARTMENT MRS. HARRY LEE BESHORE, Marion, Chairman

We find that the club women of Indiana have done their part in our department this year. All clubs seem to be International Relations minded. There have been speakers in clubs, Good Neighbor Tours, programs and in many clubs the responses have been on this department.

As chairman it has been my duty to contribute one thousand words to eight numbers of the Clubwoman magazine and to be responsible for twelve thousand words for the March issue which was devoted to our department. We contributed our program to the "Plans, Projects and Programs." Many letters have been written to clubs and material has been sent to all district chairmen. We are still asking the club women to watch the Clubwoman magazine for their help in International Relations. It has also been my duty to talk to clubs asking for it.

Since we have been stressing the Good Neighbor policy for two years, we took as our central thought this year the uniting of our Indiana women behind our governments defense program. After the Lease-Lend bill was passed by Congress it seemed treason to work against those we had pledged to support. If those Allies were defeated, it would be our defeat as well. As our sons have been called to the service we find there is complete unity.

We have also been talking and writing about "A Just and Durable Peace," our Good Neighbor Tour and the Round Table discussion groups from the committee on the Cause and Cure of War. We have co-operated with the Pan-American Union and the Federation co-operated with Indiana University in bringing a young woman from Brazil as an exchange student.

The reports from all thirteen district chairmen have been so fine that I wish I had room to share them. Many of the clubs have devoted the entire year to the study of foreign affairs.

First District clubs have co-operated to the fullest. Second District has had the good fortune to have our young student from Brazil in their midst. Their clubs have all had something about Latin America also China and Mexico. Third District clubs have open forums on such subjects as "Should the American Republics Have a Permanent Union," "Recent Social and Cultural Trends in Latin America." Fourth District also had a complete report.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Miss Foulk says "The women of our country are very much aware of conditions generally and are working in every way possible to make the most of their opportunities to assist along the lines that will better conditions. Mrs. Shannon says that all county chairmen in Fifth District have done splendid work. As a whole the clubs had one hundred per cent interest in International Relations. Mrs. Kirk as usual has reported a big year. Five clubs devoted all year to the South American Tour, several subscriptions to the Readers Digest sent to South America, and two clubs spending the year on South American music. Mrs. Barcus of Seventh District reports 68 programs in the district. The district sponsored a Pan American Day when 300 attended.

Eighth District reports an unusual amount of interest in the clubs stimulated by the fact that all clubs have boys in the service. Ninth District has a wonderful report. Eighty-eight programs. Again Tenth District has a hundred per cent report under the leadership of Mrs. Turner. Eleventh District had many fine speakers beside the work that the club members have done themselves. Twelfth District, Mrs. Brooks writes, all clubs have had papers, movies as well as well informed speakers on International Relations. Mrs. Compton of Thirteenth has a beautiful report of all her counties.

Those who say that America is not awake do not know what fine work the women are doing.

DEPARTMENT OF LEGISLATION

MRS. MAURICE EPPERT, Indianapolis, Chairman

Because 1942 is not a legislative year in Indiana, there is not as much to report as there will be next year.

The past year has been devoted to the study of legislative procedure and government in Indiana, by groups in the Indiana Federated Clubs.

Clubs from all districts have reported discussion groups where a better understanding has been gained of how to draft and introduce measures into the legislature. Members have learned how to watch the progress of a bill until it is passed or defeated.

With this knowledge the clubwomen of Indiana will be better able to take a united stand on measures of interest to them during the next legislature.

Lists of reading material have been sent to all study groups on request by the Legislative Chairman of I. F. C.

Bulletins and letters have been sent to each district regarding measures before Congress in which the G. F. W. C. and the I. F. C. were interested.

Publicity on important measures such as the Joint Income Tax bill was given in all leading newspapers in the state.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

The members of the Indiana Federated Clubs stand ready to preserve high standards in the home, church and school, and to protect the fundamentals of our Democracy through legislation, during the stressful years ahead.

DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL DEFENSE

MRS. GEORGE W. JAQUA, Winchester, Chairman

The Department of National Defense, now known as War Service, was established in Indiana in the early summer, at the conclusion of the G. F. W. C. Triennial at Atlantic City. It began with great interest and has developed gathering momentum ever since. Immediately upon receiving the request from Mrs. Whitehurst to appoint chairmen for the several committees set up under this Department, women were chosen for these appointments. We are proud to have been among the very first states to do this completely. We have continued to co-operate with all plans and programs of the G. F. W. C. and to make subsequent appointments as advised.

A complete organization has been completed in Indiana, within the districts and counties, for National Defense chairmen and committee chairmen. Each month, or more often, the state chairman has sent letters of information and instruction to each district National Defense chairman, she in turn contacting her county chairmen. We are pleased and proud of the fine group of active chairmen in the state, each alert and doing everything in her power to promote projects and educate clubwomen in matters pertaining to the defense of our state and nation.

Indiana also has a complete organization for defense through its counties, under the direction of the State Defense Council. With these county units all clubs are co-operating and on most of the county units the women's representative is a member of a federated club. Even where this does not prevail, a great spirit of co-operation is found among the groups. In many instances the same woman serves in several groups, tying together the programs of each, avoiding duplication and conflict.

The State Chairman has sent an article each month, devoted to matters of National Defense, to the I. F. C. Clubwoman magazine, which always includes defense items also. Each issue of the magazine has included one or more programs of the various committees under National Defense. Most of these have now been in print. Our organization has been completed and there is an active program for U. S. Stamps and Bonds; a complete registration for service in defense was carried on in counties; programs for study and projects have been sent out concerning Americanization, Aviation, Agriculture, Conservation, Industry and others. Those not yet in print are scheduled for rapid release.

Reports from districts show great activity. There have been forums and institutes in almost every district. Clubwomen have participated in defense meetings in counties and communities wherever such have been held. They are filling key positions and giving generous and capable service. Support of Red Cross, both in membership and financial drives as well as in training class, is general and enthusiastic. First Aid was stressed, also Home Nursing, Nurse's Aide, Motor Corps, some Canteen service and Recreation projects. Knitting and sewing groups can be found in great numbers all over the state. Women have co-operated in salvage collections and conservation programs. They study ways and means of conserving resources and materials in daily living and housekeeping. Club study programs continue interest in Good Neighbor Tours, geographical and governmental studies, as well as consumer interests. One district presented a small silk flag in a holder to each of its county defense chairmen. Kits of G. F. W. C. Defense programs have been recommended for constant use, and have been widely distributed. To all requests for material we recommend G. F. W. C. programs, the G. F. W. C. and I. F. C. Clubwoman magazines. Clubwomen generally responded and participated in observing the New Year's Day of Prayer. Individual clubs have increased their use of the flag, included reading of the Scripture and prayer in their meetings, supported drives of Red Cross, Tuberculosis, Infantile Paralysis and other projects, all incidental to keeping up a strong nation, strong to maintain and defend its people. Whether they like it or not, clubwomen can still be depended upon to co-operate with all requests and restrictions for national defense.

Committee on Agriculture

MRS. CALVIN PERDUE, Acton, Chairman

An Outline for Agriculture, embracing a balanced program for the needs of rural people, was prepared by your chairman, and mailed to District and County Chairmen of Agriculture, to Urban-Rural Chairmen and to state officers.

A report of the Farm Woman's Conference in Chicago was mailed to those listed. This mailing list was sent to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., asking that information and bulletins of timely interest be mailed directly to club members. The response to the outline was most encouraging. Urban as well as rural women have co-operated enthusiastically.

In the fine reports coming from the various districts we find, "Club gardens stressed with more canning and storage of vegetables;" "The battling of diseases and insects in our gardens;" "Study of nutrition," also "Plastics and the important part farm products play in this work."

Several clubs are helping with the school lunch program and are sponsoring local youth organizations. In some districts County Agents and the AAA Field Woman have been invited to give a report on the work being done through their departments to aid Agriculture in the National Defense program. One district reports a seven per cent increase in gardens. A County Chairman sends this: "In our Good Neighbor Tour we emphasized the place of agriculture in the lives of our good neighbors of South America." Your State Chairman has discussed "What the Farm Home Owes to the Nation" with twenty-five rural groups.

A long time ago, some one said, "It is an ill wind that blows no one good." In time of need we are drawn closer together and close to God. No task seems humble or insignificant that adds to the sum-total of defense against the ruthless destruction of home and country. We realize that the farm home and farm business have a distinct contribution to make in this time of National stress. The roots of Democracy are still buried deep in our fertile soil.

Committee on Americanization

MRS. E. C. RUMPLER, Indianapolis, Chairman

The division of Americanization in the Department of Defense is well organized. Eight of the thirteen districts have active chairmen of this Division. They are pursuing the program prepared by the State Chairman and presented to them through the pages of the Indiana Clubwoman, with modifications to suit local needs.

Clubs in every district are devoting time to the reading of our great American Documents, the Mayflower Compact, the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights, and Lincoln's Second Inaugural. Public meetings have been sponsored in several counties.

We are stressing silence on the part of club women that no careless repetition of idle tales may impair American success.

We are urging women not to scatter their interests but to choose the war work for which they are best fitted and devote themselves to that task.

Information regarding "the invasion of Alien ideas" is widespread among club women in Indiana and we are making every effort to arouse the uninformed to a realization of the danger from "the enemy within our gates."

We are magnifying our American Way of Life and the necessity for its preservation.

Above all, we are pleading with women to keep their faith in the ultimate victory for the Christian nations because paganism must not overcome the world.

The chairman has made numerous talks on Americanism before clubs and County Conventions as well as before ten outside organizations.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Committee on Aviation

MRS. MICHAEL BENNE, Whiting, Chairman

I. ORGANIZATION

- A. The Aviation Committee consists of the State Chairman, and a District Chairman in Aviation from each of the thirteen districts in Indiana.

II. PUBLICITY

- A. National outline on Aviation (from G. F. W. C.)
 - 1. Had one hundred copies mimeographed and sent them out as follows:
 - a. One copy to each District President in State.
 - b. One copy to each District Chairman of Aviation.
 - c. Copies to various newspapers.
 - d. One copy to State magazine "Indiana Clubwoman."
 - e. Dozen copies sent out to answer miscellaneous requests.
 - f. Thirty copies were sent to be distributed among the members of Indiana's chapter of "Ninety-Nines."
- B. Local Newspapers—
 - 1. Many local newspapers printed this outline and remarks on the Aviation Program.
- C. Indiana Clubwoman—
 - 1. The State magazine used the outline in one of its Fall issues. It also contained a short article by the State Chairman. In it she urged all District Chairmen to carry out as much of the general outline as was possible in their district. It was also urged that collections of pertinent articles, pictures, etc., be saved to give us ideas of aviation activities elsewhere.
- D. Radio Programs—
 - 1. Several of the district chairmen spoke on their subject on local radio stations.

III. CO-OPERATION WITH INDIANA CHAPTER OF NINETY-NINES

- A. State Chairmen corresponded over period of several months with the Secretary of this Chapter who is:
Mrs. Claudia E. Smith, 1233 Raible Street, Anderson, Indiana.
- B. Thirty aviation programs were sent at the chapter's request. These were distributed among the members, and G. F. W. C. plans were presented.
- C. Suggestions as to Ways this Chapter would Co-operate in Future:
 - 1. The Ninety-Nine girls could give lectures on Civil Air Patrol—both from the civil and military angle and viewpoint. They are well-informed on Aviation and know or know of, high people in this field.
 - 2. They could help the women in the clubs to choose the best place they could serve in times of war, such as this.
 - 3. To sponsor interest in recruiting pilots and personnel to the air forces, the girls could fly in any air rally or program for that purpose. They are practicing army formation flying at this time and are becoming adept at it.

D. A complete list of the Indiana Chapter and a short history of the Ninety-Nines is in my files and could be sent, on request.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the most part, we in Indiana have been working to make people "Aviation Conscious." Having made some foundation there, we hope to follow up, now, with some more definite application of the general program on Aviation.

Committee on Conservation

MAY HOBBS, Tipton, Chairman

Our Conservation program has been well promoted for Indiana. We have had an active chairman in each of the thirteen districts and each county with an active federation has had a Conservation chairman. The suggestions received from the G. F. W. C. together with suggestions of my own were incorporated into an outline was sent to every district chairman. They in turn sent it on to each of their county chairmen who sent it on to every club.

We have urged the conservation of all natural resources that are needed for defense. Our club women are co-operating in a more careful and restricted use of all manufactured articles that we have been asked to save. Clubs are eliminating some meetings, planning more essential programs for those that are held, combining meetings with other groups and holding meetings where the transportation facilities are the best as a means of conserving time, tires and gas.

Many clubs have had special speakers on Conservation; county conventions have almost all stressed such speakers; radio broadcasts have been given; newspaper articles published; and cartoons printed dealing with various aspects of Conservation. Our women have all co-operated in salvage campaigns for every kind of waste material that has been asked for. In Indianapolis alone hundreds of thousands of tons of extra garbage has been collected that will yield fats for soap, glycerine for munitions and fertilizer for victory gardens that are being planned all over Indiana as a means of supplementing our food supply. Women who have never helped in canning factories are planning to help this summer so that our food requests from the government will be met.

First aid classes as a means of conserving life have been held in all parts of the state. Our women have co-operated in Fire Defense week and many are taking training that would enable them to help wisely if our war defense plants are bombed or our factories crippled by sabotage. Special clean out attic campaigns have been conducted, both as a means of conserving property that might be destroyed by fire and as a source of needed waste materials for war industries. Many club women have taken training that enables them to inspect homes for fire hazards as well as giving them training in fighting fires.

Clubs are putting on educational programs, studying the sources of raw materials, the uses for and the reasons for their scarcity and the need for conserving them.

Our club women are alert, they are watching the press and listening to the radio. As soon as we are asked to conserve any article or waste product we make our plans to co-operate with some agency or make our own plans for a campaign to meet this request.

Committee on Consumer Problems

MRS. ODETTE GLADYS ELWELL, Rushville, Chairman

Mrs. Patrick Henry Adams, G. F. W. C. Chairman says, "No matter to what other field of defense activities our circumstances or our inclinations direct our thinking, all of us are consumers and have therefore a stake in the program of Consumer Problems."

Whenever club women have gotten together they have shared information on labels, qualities and the new merchandise that takes the place of materials formerly available. Now that sugar is rationed and it is suggested that other rationing will follow the club woman has taken it with a smile knowing that any price is cheaper than to lose this war.

Outlines, sources of additional material and letters have been sent to each district and county. District chairmen report that some clubs in each county have had special programs, responses to roll call, club institutes or county institutes on Consumer Problems.

First District Chairman, Mrs. Robert Wilson, gave a talk at a joint county meeting. From Mt. Vernon comes the suggestion—"Pennies kept in the empty sugar bowl spent for Defense Stamps."

Mrs. H. V. Black, Chairman of Fourth District reports one club used for its program for the year, Consumer on the March. They used sound pictures on two occasions and had Prof. Bunting of Hanover College as their guest day speaker. He discussed "The Consumer Facing the War."

Mrs. B. R. Nelson of Sixth District reported 100% of the counties had done work in subject of Consumer Problems.

Mrs. Jesse Phillippi of the Ninth District states 100% of counties reported work done by clubs. Three club women gave talks on the radio at Danville, Illinois.

Mrs. Luther Greenwood from Tenth District reported many club women took Trip to Chicago to a consumer meeting.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Mrs. W. S. Wirich of Eleventh District reported special programs in individual clubs and many Victory Gardens planned.

I wish to thank the district chairmen for their work and co-operation this year. They have all responded generously with their time and efforts and have relayed the work to the counties promptly. I wish also to commend the county chairmen for this review is possible only through their reports of local activities.

Committee on Housing

MRS. FREDERICK G. BALZ, Indianapolis, Chairman

The objectives of the Housing Committee are: 1—to intelligently promote the basic policy of the defense housing program, so that “no defense activity shall be retarded because of housing and no American worker shall be forced to live in sub-standard conditions while carrying on duties vital to the defense of his country”; 2—to further patriotic and social aspects of proper housing planned to improve the health, safety and morale of defense workers and their families; 3—to stimulate a practical, long-range housing program aimed at “a decent home for every American family”; to further the slum clearance and housing programs on a large scale as an important part of the transition back to normal after the war. In order to be ready, every community should be making its plans now.

Because of numerous defense plants located recently in Indiana the housing problem is of especial importance in this state. Housing chairmen of the I. F. C. have studied the problems of the various communities, and have made plans to aid in their solution.

The I. F. C. has always been in the forefront in working for slum clearance legislation and for better housing in peace times as well as in war. With the beginning made this year we expect during the coming year to make some really practical, worthwhile accomplishments.

Committee on Industry

MRS. FRED F. SCHUTZ, Gary, Chairman

Our slogan for this year has been—“In co-operation with industrial concerns and vocational institutions to teach women relatives so that that they can take their place in industry when men are needed for defense.”

Realizing the coming need for skilled women in defense plants, each chairman was asked to survey her own community to ascertain the need of woman-power in industry, and to gather information regarding available courses of training for women in special skills.

Seven chairmen of the eleven reporting are also heading the Division of Industry under Public Welfare, which causes an overlapping of reports. Your chairman regrets not having a more detailed report, but feels a good groundwork has been established to carry on the work of this committee next year.

There have been many requests for program material indicating a widespread interest in the role women are playing in the defense industrial program. Reports show several radio programs on Industry. Mrs. George W. Jaqua, National Defense Chairman, has offered many valuable suggestions for which your chairman is deeply grateful. Room registration surveys, adequate transportation facilities to defense plants, and establishment of nurseries for children of employed mothers are projects undertaken.

Tenth District reports a day nursery is maintained in White County, and others will be established later. Assistance has been pledged to the Lake County Council of Social Agencies who are engaged in a survey to determine the need for services to children during the time the mother is employed.

Mrs. Izona May Shirley, Seventh District Chairman, sent this message with her report, "Many women who are employed in making war material or any kind of war equipment would love to pause in their intensified effort to say 'God Speed' to the women who are carrying on in the homes, in club life, or in other walks of life. Without one another we would fail. With one another we will win the peace that is sure to follow this hideous war."

Committee on Library

MRS. E. A. KELLY, Carmel, Chairman

To equip and train women to participate in the general program of National Defense, the General Federation of Woman's Clubs has organized a Department of National Defense. And, it is only natural, that an important part of that Department should be the National Defense Library.

This library can, and must be, the source of information and material of the varied subjects of the defense program. We all have the privilege of helping by contributing a book, or the money for a book, to this "army of books" now being mobilized at headquarters.

The books are on patriotic subjects, national defense and international questions. Every member in every club is requested to read at least one book on the suggested subjects and every club should have at least one or more of these books reviewed before the club.

Since April 1, 1941, there have been three books contributed to the Defense Library at Headquarters in Washington.

This contribution was made by the Nora Hicks Club of the Sixth District, and with the money contributed by this club, three very fine books have been purchased and are now in the Defense Library. They are books on Canada.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Committee on Nursing

MRS. L. R. KELLAM, Culver, Chairman

Since our entrance into the second World War there has been a steady depletion of nursing services in hospitals and health departments. The shortage of graduate nurses is already acute. To forestall a further shortage, it is necessary that 50,000 young women enroll at once in nursing schools. The U. S. Office of Civilian Defense has asked for 100,000 trained nurses' aides this year.

Club women can help meet the present emergency by encouraging young women of their respective communities to enter nursing schools, by encouraging registered nurses to enroll in the Red Cross Nurses' Reserve, by taking the Red Cross training for Nurses' Aides, by serving as Gray Ladies, and by acquainting the public of our Nation's great need.

Judging from reports throughout the State, club women and the Red Cross have co-operated 100% in providing training in First Aid and Home Nursing—the prerequisite training for Nurses' Aides. One County Red Cross Executive wrote as follows: "We appreciate that the Federated Clubs are co-operating so splendidly with the American Red Cross and want you to know that we do."

Because of the varied activities, it has been quite difficult to secure an accurate report of the actual work done by our club women. In many counties they have served as organizers, while in others they have been the students.

Pamphlets containing material for organization, bibliography, and publicity were prepared and sent to all the counties. Each county was also sent a questionnaire. The fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, twelfth, and thirteenth districts submitted reports.

Seventh District reported that 296 club women had completed the First Aid Course and 109 had completed the Home Nursing Training.

Eighth District had 21 girls to enter nursing schools this year and 5 registered nurses to enlist with the Red Cross Reserve. Mrs. C. E. Bishop, district chairman, organized 18 classes in Home Nursing in Madison County.

In the ninth district club women organized many of the classes in First Aid and Home Nursing.

Tenth District had 8 girls to enter nursing schools and 11 registered nurses enrolled in the Reserve.

Allen County in Twelfth District had 267 girls to enter nursing schools. Forty-five nurses enlisted in the Reserve. This report far exceeded any other in the state.

The chairman wishes to thank all those who participated in this public service at a time when it is so greatly needed.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Committee on Nutrition

MRS. H. L. SMITH, Bloomington, Chairman

Requests have come from twenty-five clubs for program material. Suggestions developed from the national and by the state chairman of Nutrition, have been distributed. Requests for specified materials have been referred to the Package Library of the I. U. Extension Division.

A radio round table on Nutrition as a factor in national defense, was arranged over WIRE.

Courses and study groups on Nutrition have been organized in many counties and towns. Communities as well as in the cities. Not only were speakers for groups meetings used, but the radio has been employed in order to stimulate people to study and plan for better nutrition.

I have urged nutrition programs in local clubs. Further than that, I have suggested that club women work through the local defense committee and thus organize the whole of the community.

There seems to be a definite need for a list of speakers on nutrition problems. These persons should be widely dispersed to assure reading groups who need help on putting the matter before their communities. Where there is need for basic material to lend persons preparing programs for clubs. Clubwomen should ask their nearest Red Cross Chapter to conduct nutrition classes. Requests should go to Defense Council Nutrition Division, I. U. Extension Service Package library, local libraries and the Red Cross.

Committee on Recreation

MRS. FRED L. PETTIJOHN, Indianapolis, Chairman

The main objective of recreation is to provide entertainment and relaxation first, to men in service and then, to people of all ages, in order to insure greater efficiency, better health and a certain degree of comfort and peace of mind.

Our first rule is that club women shall attempt to assist those agencies already existing and working for the same goal.

In the Seventh district, entertainment was provided as soon as there was a need. Many agencies were started by individuals and then assistance was sought later. Mrs. Dorothy Buschmann opened the service men's club and many women volunteered to help in this work. Clubs in the district furnished tea and kept the "cookie jar" filled. Butler university students provided hostesses for teas and dances at this club house.

The canteen at the Indianapolis Union Station was set up to provide help and cheer for troops passing through the city. The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. have furnished their usual form of entertainment. All the agencies available have taken care of recreation for health and happiness of men in service and for all civilians, such agencies as the churches, movies, Civic Theatre, playground, etc.

Club women have worked with the recreational director at Fort Harrison, providing cheer in the Hospital, entertainment in private homes, supplying reading material and games at the Fort. The Civic Theatre is putting on plays there. No doubt women all over the state are providing similar entertainment wherever soldiers and sailors convene.

Several cities and towns have reported service clubs for men in uniform, to varying degrees. Some few have established social rooms. Other groups have sent cigarettes, books and newspapers to their local men in service. While this is not technically "recreation" yet we call attention to our objective in the first paragraph. Recreation projects need not be limited to service men. There are many new industries springing up, new army camps and towns within the state, which offer a definite need for organized recreation. Please consult the outline offered in the new Program Booklet of the Federation.

Committee on Registration

MRS. CHARLES H. SMITH, Indianapolis, Chairman

In this time of world conflict, every American citizen has a tremendous responsibility to bear. All of us should contribute in some way, large or small, to winning the war. Our club women, because of their years of club training, are prepared and equipped to give invaluable service at this time.

Every club woman should be registered for some service in National Defense. It has been the aim of this Division to give every member a chance to serve her country in that capacity for which she is best fitted.

In order to do this the chairman sent out instructions and sample cards, asking that there be a voluntary registration of all members, and explained the four fold purpose of registration, which is as follows:

1. To provide the state federation and the individual club information as to the skills and training of their members and also as to their willingness to work.
2. To signify the desire of the women to improve their skills and develop proficiency through taking training courses.
3. To give the individual club woman an opportunity to analyse herself and evaluate her abilities. Each of us needs to ask ourselves such questions—How much service can I give in skills? In training? In hours?
4. To give the individual an opportunity to pledge her services.

The thousands of cards that have been sent to the chairman are filed according to club, city, county and district and are ready for use when needed. Registration is not as large as had been expected, but there are several reasons for this.

Just about the time we issued our instructions, the County Councils for Defense started an active campaign to register all women in every county. Many of our women registered with their County Councils and thought it a duplication to register again with us; some are passed the age where they want to sign for service of any kind, but will do all they can when conditions demand; some belong to other organizations and registered with them; some were not willing to register. Some clubs made duplicate cards to be used in local registration.

More than a third of our members registered. Some clubs and some counties were almost one hundred per cent. Green County of the second district led all others with ninety-nine per cent. The sixth and ninth districts reported for all counties in their districts.

While we do not have a registration card for every member of our federation, we know thousands of them (some who have not registered and those who have) are giving generously of their time and services in the many divisions of the Defense Program.

We sincerely appreciate the untiring effort of those who so ably assisted in this registration.

Committee on U. S. War Savings Stamps and Bonds

MRS. EDWIN F. MILLER, Peru, Chairman

Mrs. Oscar A. Ahlgren, President of the Indiana Federation of Clubs is Chairman of the War Savings Stamps and Bonds Division of Women's Organizations of the state.

The State Federation, as a whole, enlisted in pledge signing for the week of April 27, McArthur week.

Because of Indiana's fine purchasing record, your chairman was invited to broadcast, from Ft. Worth, Texas, with Mrs. John D. Robinson, G. F. W. C. chairman and Mrs. Eleanor Wilson McAdoo, representative from the federal offices, Washington.

As an organization, we are well organized to promote interest in the purchase of War Savings Stamps and Bonds.

A number of clubs, having building funds or savings accounts, are turning the amounts in War Savings Bonds and Stamps. There are a number of 100% clubs or clubs in which every member has purchased. Green county is 100%, in that every club is 100%. Student Loans have been put into Bonds, and then presented to the colleges.

It has been difficult to obtain the exact amounts invested because purchasers feel it is a personal matter and are loath to commit themselves. However, their windows show the blue pledge.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

To date, $75,278.32 has been reported to me of club women funds invested in War Savings Bonds and Stamps.

I am sure this does not cover the total purchases, by all means.

The trustees of I. F. C. were asked to put extra funds of the State Federation into War Savings Bonds and Stamps.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE MRS. T. E. LASHBROOK, Westfield, Chairman

One of the most important functions of our Federation of Clubs is the part it plays in moulding public opinion. But before we try to mould public opinion it is necessary for us to know "whereof we speak." Our federation has prepared us for this task, through many channels, principally through that of education. Through the many fine programs of study that come to us through our organization leaders, we not only learn but are stimulated to seek further into the fields that demand our interest. It is important that at the close of our year's work we evaluate our achievements and ask ourselves whether there has been progress. Has our program been beneficial to our communities—have we interpreted the social services that are available to our communities and in any way promoted public support and friendly public opinion for the continuance and preservation of these services? Has it stimulated a desire to improve conditions for those less fortunate people all about us and have clubwomen assumed their share of responsibility in bringing about better community conditions?

We feel the year's work in the department of Public Welfare has been most successful, division chairmen doing splendid work and the accomplishments reported very satisfactory. While it is true that clubwomen have been called upon to spread themselves over a large field of war activities, I want to express my appreciation for the time and tireless efforts of the Division chairmen and their district chairmen in promoting the program of this department. Long time planning in the field of child welfare, Crime prevention, Health, etc., goes beyond the present emergency, and it is important that clubwomen, as well as all citizens, see that the essential continuous activities involving the public welfare are not neglected during this emergency period and that we have a responsibility to perform.

Probably the most significant and far reaching report of work well done has come from the seventh district federation of clubs. A committee of clubwomen under the direction of their district chairman of public welfare has investigated some thirty nursing homes for aged and blind persons in Indianapolis, who are recipients of assistance grants, and found a serious need for supervision of some of these nursing homes. In their surveys they found some of these homes in charge of competent managers and attendants, but others were termed as "bad," ill managed and unfit. Their findings were reported to their Mayor with recommendation for legislature to provide for public supervision in order that the proper degree of health and sanitation be maintained.

Through the efforts of these clubwomen public attention has been focused on these conditions and a public meeting was called and the problem discussed. This committee of clubwomen favors a law to provide supervision of nursing homes. Such a bill was before our 1939 State legislature but was lost in the last day's rush of business. Such supervision no doubt would be welcomed by the proprietors of the better class of nursing homes, and would be a needed curb on the places that should be improved or closed.

Many fine projects are being carried on by clubwomen all over the State—some have been reported and some have not, but it is with a great deal of pride as well as appreciation that I present the reports of the division chairmen. Their work speaks for itself—it is an honorable record of service and achievement.

A part of the Public Welfare work of the Seventh District, not appearing elsewhere in the reports under this department, follows:

Eighteen clubs reported $5,593.31 expended for Public Welfare. Sixteen programs on Health reported by clubs—amount expended for Health Projects and Health Campaigns, $1,026.45. Four programs on Juvenile Delinquency reported. Ten programs on Child Welfare reported. One program on Women in Industry reported.

Knitting, sewing for Red Cross, Bundles for Britain and Bundles for America, etc., have been engaged in by thousands of Seventh District women.

Division of Child Welfare

MRS. C. C. MILLER, East Chicago, Chairman

The plan for child welfare work this year was to study and to serve each community. The reports showed that club programs ranged from forums to responses at roll call and that club women have served many children. Similar projects noted in each district were contributions to Infantile Paralysis and Tuberculosis funds; immunization for diseases; hot school lunches, milk, and cod liver oil for undernourished children, glasses, dental care, clothes, food baskets, parties and gifts for underprivileged children, and, Red Cross sewing and knitting for refugee children. Specific accomplishments in each district follow:

First District—Cash gifts of $5.00 sent to the Evansville Rescue Mission. Twenty-six dolls purchased, dressed and distributed at Christmas time. One club reported a 100% membership working for Red Cross.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Second District—Owen county has a fund for children's care at Riley Hospital. Purchased window shades for a children's library room. Sponsored and purchased uniforms for Girl Scout toops. Donated children's books to a library. Supervised summer playgrounds.

Third District—Especially concerned with child health. Fifty children received dental care and twenty were fitted with glasses. Thirty-eight club women served on welfare committees.

Fourth District—Displayed child welfare literature at club meetings. Subscribed for nine children's magazines for a library. Two clubs sponsored a nursing school where mothers were taught the proper care of children.

Fifth District—No report.

Sixth District—No report.

Seventh District—No report.

Eighth District—Aided the T. B. Hospital Camp in Madison county, and gave twenty-one bottles of cod liver oil to tubercular children. Distributed 175 Christmas toys.

Ninth District—The Westfield Club sponsored a hot lunch program which used commodities from the Surplus Marketing Administration. It received recognition from the State Public Welfare Department which printed an article concerning the project in its state magazine. Clubs co-operated with recreational and playground projects. Sewing was done for Riley Hospital.

Tenth District—Bought a wheeled chair for an invalid child. Supervised recreation at community centers. Installed floodlights at a ball park and skating pond. One club was especially concerned with safety for its children on the city streets. A group of underprivileged children was sent to summer camp. Tubercular children were furnished transportation to the sanatorium for clinics. A library for children was sponsored.

Eleventh District—Special child welfare services totaled 15,593 hours of refugee sewing, $3,418.50 contributed for children's health and 248 hours of story-telling to children. School lunch projects used surplus commodities.

Twelfth District—No report.

Thirteenth District—A symposium on "Home" stressed family life, religious education and health in a child's life. Shoes and rubbers were purchased for needy children. A hospital room was equipped and cared for in several schools. Sewing was done and cookies were baked for the Orphans Home in Mishawaka.

This division is deeply indebted to the Public Welfare Department of Indiana for program material and for many fine speakers. The chairman of this division is grateful to Mrs. Lashboork for her guidance and to the district chairmen for their assistance. It has been a pleasure to work with you.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Division of Health and Mental Health MRS. A. O. BENSON, Bridgeton, Indiana

This has been a busy club year in Indiana as our members nobly responded to the plea of Mrs. Ahlgren, our beloved president, for us to help carry on with National Defense. And this is true in all lines of Health and Mental projects where they have co-operated with earnestness and enthusiasm truly inspirational. And for their zeal your chairman is deeply grateful. Even in districts unreported officially much good has been done and some clubs have done marvelously much.

First District—Work done for "Bundles" and active now in Red Cross, T. B. Bonds purchased, Health and Mental Health talks on programs, all interested in public health.

Second District—Children's dental work donated, toys at Christmas, two papers on T. B. and cancer, one on opportunity school at Denver, Colorado under Mental Health, others on Mental Health, Easter egg hunt sponsored.

Fourth District—Under Health and Mental Health entire program on "Health in the Home." Roll call "Good Health Habits," papers, "Public Health Legislation" and "Nutrition," "Health" and "Mental Health" (with discussions). Public Health nurse talk, "Health the First Line of Defense." Hunter, chairman, assisted physicians and nurses immunize children in three schools against diphtheria, sales and purchase of T. B. Bonds, poster display on health lines at county convention—later given by county health nurse. Lecture by physician on state hospitals, two first aid courses.

B. Bonds bought and Red Cross donations, clubs active in Red Cross relief and civilian defense, book reviews on Health subjects, books collected for soldiers, purchased goods made by blind.

Tenth District—In Newton county the one and only club takes care of teeth of needy children, clubs donate to Infantile paralysis, Red Cross, T. B. and war relief, gave hospital bed to

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Bookston Home, wheel chair to invalid girl, dolls, hot school lunches, eyeglasses, clothing, milk to underprivileged children. Coal and medical aid to needy adults, gave English and essay prizes to school children. Welfare director speaker at two meetings. Judge spoke on "Child Delinquency," supervised recreation centers.

Eleventh District—School lunches, eyeglasses provided poor children, tour of Longcliff, Mrs. Dice, chairman, made talks on keeping mentally fit, inaugurated a "Pass a Book Plan" whereby books on subjects of Mental Health were passed around among members interested. This was found so successful, three neighboring libraries were drawn upon for more material. Much interest.

Division of Crime Prevention and Control MRS. ROBERT WILSON, Boonville, Chairman

In making this report I wish to thank Mrs. Ted Lashbrook, chairman of Public Welfare, editors and compilers of the year book, for patient consideration in view of an interrupted program, and disconnected reports due to the heavy burden of Defense Work in which we all share.

First District—Five clubs reported responses to roll call on subjects relative to the control of crime; one club had a public speaker. One club member serving on jury.

No report from 2-3-4-5-6-7.

Eighth District—Adams County women felt, and wisely, that Marijuana was a contributing factor in the cause of crime; Economics club had a program with display of weed; discussion of use and effects. Woman's Club of Muncie set up a booth at the Street Carnival with exhibits, etc., and literature for distribution.

Ninth District—Hamilton County, Arcadia Study Club had five subjects relative to the control of crime, for roll call; local truant officer is a member of the club.

Carmel Entre Nous had special talk by Mrs. Gallup fully covering all topics suggested for study in the program booklet.

Noblesville Tourist Club, fifteen to twenty-five minute discussion of subjects in general.

Westfield Woman's Club visited Boys' School at Plainfield.

Westfield Monday Afternoon Club has a member serving on probation board; one paper on Law Enforcement with wide discussion on slum clearance, and right living, in addition to Subjects in Program Booklet.

Tenth District—Report from White County lists one response to roll call, one curfew established, two members serving on juries. One club lists co-operation with probation officer.

Thirteenth District—The American Girls' Club, sponsored by four Warsaw Woman's Clubs outlined a schedule for underprivileged girls four to seventeen years of age; had two hours of program work on Crime Prevention.

Winona Progress Club and Winona Lake Literary had programs on Teen Age Problems.

The Catholic Woman's Study Club of Michigan City had a lecture by Warden Dowd, Indiana State Prison, on Recent Changes in Prison Technique, including Psychological treatment, educational methods, and modern parole system.

Bass Lake Club assisted 4-H Club and studied home training.

Progress Club of North Judson, paper on Crime and Racketeering and half hour institute.

North Judson Woman's Club, two and one-half hours on Crime Prevention, Better Radio for Children, Emphasis on Righteous Living, "The Great Stone Face," Story of Clara Barton, Youth Movement in the U. S. A., Youth and America's Future, Character of America's Children, and Christian Homes in America.

In Conclusion—for continuing study, Marijuana (Hemp) now being grown in the United States, to be used for fiber, should be closely watched.

Community Service

MRS. J. W. KIRKPATRICK, Muncie, Chairman

This is a partial list of the many fine things that have done by the club members: Kept Old Post Trail and Territorial Hall; answered tourist inquiries; sponsored Christmas parties; donated cakes, candies and flowers to the aged in county homes, redecorated rooms for them; cooperated with Youth Organizations, such as Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. A., Girl and Boy Scouts, Camp Fire and church groups, 4-H Clubs; Assisted Salvation Army and Community Service agencies by serving on boards and committees as well as giving money; cooperated with the Industrial Aid for the Blind; campaigned against gambling and taverns.

Clubs all over the state have been very active in Health campaigns, Tuberculosis, Cancer, Infantile Paralysis, immunization of children, legislation for pasteurized milk led the list.

Hundreds of women have been blood donors. Others have aided at hospitals when their services were needed.

In some communities—not many—the club women have been active in urging church attendance, having church bells rung to call attention to the time for "Minute Prayers." Patriotic affairs have been sponsored.

The call which was sent out by the American Red Cross and the American Library Association for books and magazines met with a fine response.

Thousands of women are enrolled in the classes directed by the Red Cross. The results will be reflected in homes.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

The organization and mobilization for National Defense and bringing about community togetherness. Perhaps new discoveries will be made.

Division of Industry

MRS. FRED F. SCHUTZ, Gary, Chairman

Women and Industry, though vitally important to each other, have not always been as closely associated as they should be. Realizing that now, more than ever, there is a need for better understanding, your chairman has stressed the importance of learning more of each other's activities. District chairmen were urged to hold industrial forums, encourage development of local industries, and have a survey made of employed women in their communities. Clubs in defense plant areas were asked to assist in room registration surveys to benefit the many women to be employed. Better transportation facilities for women to and from the plants have been secured through the efforts of your chairman.

Because our women are crowding every possible minute of the day with some phase of defense work, several reports have not been received but judging from the requests for material, your chairman believes much constructive work has been accomplished.

First District—Mrs. Thomas Miller, Oakland City, reports she has sent out reprints of the plans and projects and answered all requests for material.

Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Districts—No reports.

Sixth District—Mrs. Roy M. Bradley, Greenfield, has been busy sending out material and reports several counties in her District do not have chairmen of Industry.

Seventh District—No report.

Eighth District—Mrs. John Peterson, Decatur, reported on the work of her committee at a District meeting and urged all clubs to have programs on Industry.

Ninth District—Mrs. Warner Overfield, Veedersburg, sent a splendid outline of the reports she had received from County Chairmen. Clubs made surveys of their own communities, reporting courses offered for women to be trained in lines of Industry, that they may replace men called to service. She gave one entire club program on Industry and a fifteen minute radio broadcast on the Division of Industry.

Tenth District—Mrs. James J. Griffith, Whiting, sent material to County Chairmen and reports several club programs on Industry. A representative of the National Association of Manufacturers addressed the District Council meeting.

Eleventh District—Mrs. Eva Seybold, Logansport, conferred with industrial managers and gave a very interesting and complete report of a survey made in her District as to working conditions, safety and health of women employees.

Twelfth District—Mrs. Robert Feagler, Auburn, forwarded all material to County Chairmen and outlined their responsibility in the work.

Thirteenth District—Mrs. Raynor A. Timme, Michigan City, reports a two hour program on Women in Industry at the M. I. S. C. Club of LaPorte County.

Your Chairman greatly appreciates the assistance of Mrs. Ted Lashbrook, Chairman of Public Welfare, and the splendid co-operation of the District Chairmen.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

SPECIAL COMMITTEES

THE INDIANA CLUBWOMAN

MRS. NETTIE A. DOWNEY, South Bend, Editor

Twelve issues of THE INDIANA CLUBWOMAN were issued during the past club year, all but two numbers being twenty-four pages. It was necessary to have additional pages for the Christmas and Convention editions due to the large amount of advertising, and, in the Convention issue the presenting of the complete program and informative material of much interest to club women generally.

Every effort has been made to administer the office of editor with efficiency and economy. Due to unsettled conditions, etc., there has been need for careful planning to serve the constituency in the best manner possible, and this has been the constant aim of the editor in her field.

During the year, five numbers were devoted to the following interests: The Districts, Juniors, the Counties, American Citizenship, and International Relations while National Defense was stressed in every issue. The magazine pages reflected national and state federation objectives and plans always with complete accord. Our contacts with club women, many of them pen acquaintances, have been most fortunate and their fine comments are cherished memories.

The duties falling to the editor's lot, writing, editing, proof-reading, make-up, etc., in addition to taking care of heavy correspondence, have been performed faithfully while co-operating at all times with those with whom she has been associated, the assistant editors, the business manager, advertising manager, and the publishers; she truly is thankful for their support and assistance. She has attended all meetings requiring her presence, has made numerous sales talks for the magazine, and endeavored constantly to further its interests.

CONSERVATION OF NATURAL RESOURCES COMMITTEE

MRS. T. EUGENE BAILEY, Romney, Chairman

Governor Henry F. Schricker has said: "To conserve our great heritage we need a new consecration to Conservation, to right the wrongs of the past, to restore the trees and to preserve the natural beauty."

A new significance has been added to Indiana Club Women's movement for the conservation of natural resources—a result of our participation in the greatest war in our history. In war as in peace the conservation program will go on, stimulated by the realization of the importance of natural resources—Water, soil, forest, wildlife and their use in our war contribution and of what these resources will mean to our children after victory.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

The National Defense Program brings to our attention the urgent need for conservation of waste land through reforestation in order to strengthen national defense, by good forestry practices, increased production will provide a better social and economic condition, assure a supply of timber to the nation in perpetuity and to preserve water sheds in navigable streams.

Let us all re-emphasize that our national resources are indispensable for defense, may we use every opportunity to bring about remedial action in the protection of our forests from fires, insects, and diseases, and keep our woods, waters and good earth producing.

The foundation of forestry has been laid in the state, and mothers in homes and teachers in the schools must help our nation in times like these to become more faithful forest guardians, they must plan to protect the trees, by selective cutting, and preventing forest fires. It is our responsibility, much of the happiness of the people depends upon how well we save our natural resources.

The future rests with our youth, it is essential for children to have a knowledge of our natural resources, that they may be taught how they may be profitably used without exhausting them for future generations. I urge and recommend that some action be taken to place a text-book in the grade schools.

Committee on Gardens

MRS. HENRY B. HELLER, Decatur, Chairman

In almost every instance chairmen who have sent in district reports have indicated cooperation with the National Defense program by stressing Victory vegetable gardens. However, we have not lost sight of the fact that the spirit as well as the body must be sustained, and the important part close-cropped lawns and the beauty and fragrance of flowers and shrubs play in maintaining sanity of mind and soul in these dark days.

First District—Federated clubs are cooperating with Civilian Defense. Victory Garden guides have been given out recommending variety of plants.

Second District—Some club women plan to have vegetable gardens and can from them. However, they will still have their flower gardens.

Seventh District plans to plant flowers as necessity for maintaining morale, vegetable to supply nutritional food for the body. Defense chairman is asking all garden clubs in Marion county to contribute from $2.50 to $5.00 to help finance settlement homes that have community gardens as part of their program.

Eighth District—Chairman has stressed Victory gardens in all talks; and reports Federated clubs trying to cooperate in every way possible with the many garden clubs in the district. People are becoming garden conscious. Garden Week was observed in some counties; flower shows, children's flower shows and children's gardens were sponsored. Bouquets were sent to hospitals and flower beds made at city approaches.

Ninth District—The following are the objectives of this district:

1. Larger and better vegetable gardens planted early in April.
2. Plant more tomatoes, some for canning.
3. Plant some small fruit, such as berries and grapes.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

4. Have every club member plant one or more good fruit trees.
5. Plant many flower seeds with a plan, and plant something new to you.

The chairman has given talks at five garden clubs, four county meetings, and written many letters and cards.

Tenth District—Newton county had all trees trimmed along the highway, put out a total of 1179 trees and shrubs. Co-operating with Defense program. Warren county set out many pine and cedar trees. Fine clump of tamarack at edge of town covers unsightly corner. Flower shows were held, prizes given. Fine talks given and poems read. Has vegetable and flower gardens, well kept lawns, pool and rock gardens, giving town and county the much hoped for result attained through co-operation. Two important events, Flower Show and Hobby Show, an event of two days, with prizes awarded. National Garden Week was observed in the district through the local newspapers. Some counties have independent garden clubs, and in such cases clubs do not have garden departments.

Eleventh District—Gardens well planned and promise good results. Garden clubs sponsoring Victory gardens in schools. Flower shows were held. Memorial trees planted in Huntington Botanical Gardens. Several hundred ornamental evergreens were planted over city of Huntington. Vacant lots are to be cultivated. County Agricultural Agent has organized all county women in Victory Garden campaign.

Thirteenth District—Two out of seven counties reported 96 vegetable gardens, two vegetable and flower gardens, many victory gardens planned, 35 fruit trees, 500 strawberry plants. one flower exchange, 30 flower gardens.

Committee on Highway Beautification

MRS. HERBERT A. TRUEMAN, Bedford, Chairman

Highway beautification has a two-fold object—first, to assist the State Highway Commission in plantings; maintenance of their various projects; erect historical markers; promote health in roadside parks; and arouse civic pride in these. Second, study traffic safety from every angle.

Fine work has been done throughout our thirteen districts. Many clubs have planted or financed same, and individuals have beautified their highway frontage; unsightly places have been screened by shrubbery; billboards that mar scenery, or endanger traffic, have been removed; traffic and health laws studied; and clubs and schools have stressed safety on highways.

District Two erected a roadside table in memory of a deceased member. District Three studied the laws, and activities of the State Highway Commission, aiding wherever possible. District Four reported on new construction projects. District Five, highway turns cleared, prizes given for safety slogans. District Six, iris and shrubs planted on highway fronting cemetery. District Seven, construction emphasized. District Eight, chairman observed roadside improvement in many states, and suggests Indiana have a system such as Michigan, where roadside plantings are constantly sprayed. Several safety campaigns held and traffic studied. Chairman gave seventeen talks on conservation and highway beautification. She urges remaining covered bridges be preserved, native shrubs and trees planted, and historic markers erected. District Nine, chairman visited three counties, gave seven talks, and wrote seventy-eight messages stressing highway beautification. Seventy-five red bud and dog-wood planted; highway trees kept fertilized; two clubs made trips to see plantings. District Eleven, safety programs given in schools and fifteen clubs; unsightly places screened; fine new pavements; plantings and sodding to control erosion, in some counties defense work given precedence. District Thirteen, chairman sent out material and suggested programs.

Your chairman has sent material and suggestions to all districts, and upon request, to Oregon's State Chairman of Highway Beautification; has prepared an outline and a forum, two articles for the Clubwoman, given talks on present and future highway plans; and attended several state and district councils and conventions.

The new forum, "Roadside Improvement for Defense," has been sent to district chairmen. It streamlines the Highway Beautification program for this new year according to plans made by the State Highway Commission. Indiana must use finances and essential materials for military and otherwise essential roads. There will be maintenance of beautification already done, including eight hundred miles of plantings, and roadside parks.

Our new vision is of super-highways, dual-laned, widened shoulders and bridges, straightened curves, more automatic railroad flasher signals, traffic counters, yellow beaded lines, reflectors and signs and card index for data on accidents. The forum includes a history of our highway system from the creation of State Highway Commission 1919—of its Planning Survey, Traffic Engineering, Improvement, Section, Feeder System, and others—on to its Post War plans.

Slogan "Every Accident Delays Defense."

CO-OPERATION FOR THE BLIND

MRS. E. V. TOMS, Greenfield, Chairman

"The purpose of this committee is to preserve the sightless from inactivity, dependence and despair which ordinarily accompany blindness."

In reviewing the reports of the thirteen district chairwomen it is very interesting and encouraging to note the zeal and activity in this department, notwithstanding the many added defense duties.

It has been a real pleasure to serve where co-operation is so evident. I deeply appreciate this fine co-operation and I send many thanks to every one who assisted in making this excellent report.

Mrs. Guy Cunningham, of Tipton county, wrote, "all club chairmen are on their toes," and that she personally made ten trips to the board for articles; she also made two long distance calls, and made four large orders by mail.

Huntington county reports a dinner given for the Progress Club, a local blind organization.

The Monday Guild of the Seventh District is composed entirely of blind women, forty-five altogether. It is a division of the Department Club. The club provides a motor corps to transport the members to meetings where interesting programs are given. Terre Haute has an Association of the Blind. The officers of the club are mostly blind. Their object is to plan legislation for the benefit of the blind.

The Good Cheer Club, sponsored by the Terre Haute Department Club, is a social club for the blind.

Members of the Hammond Junior Woman's Club entertained at a guest meeting where Mrs. Robert Gibbons of Merrillville was presented with her seeing-eye dog. She lectured on the subject, "We Who Sit Apart."

Miss Kruger, Ninth District chairman, made a radio talk from Danville, Illinois, in November. Her subject was "Club Aid for the Blind."

Mrs. Morgan, chairman of the Second District, said, "We could have sold as much again if our orders could have been filled."

It is true the Board of Industrial Aid for the Blind was unable to get materials in large quantities at any one time, therefore many orders were delayed. But we want them to know we will always appreciate their untiring efforts in filling orders.

FORUMS

Mrs. W. D. Keenan, Chairman, Indianapolis

Our aim this year was, "to promote education for responsible citizenship in a democracy and to safeguard our precious heritage through intelligent discussion of current problems pertaining to our social and economic life. To encourage and promote intelligent thought and action; to develop the power and capacity to make our own decisions."

With this thought in mind we sponsored the Indiana women's Forum with state-wide membership, meeting in Indianapolis. Five meetings were held with an attendance of over two hundred. Subjects discussed were (1) Women's contribution to the Defense Program; (2) A Pattern for Thinking; (3) The Community in a Crisis; (4) Conservation in Defense; (5) America Assesses the War.

More than eight hundred women attended the Political Science Forums held in three Indiana Colleges during the month of November. These were arranged in co-operation with our president, Mrs. Ahlgren, Mrs. Russell, chairman Citizenship Department, Mrs. Adele Bittner, Indiana University and presented at Indiana University, North Manchester College and I. U. Extension at Gary. Co-operating with the Federation were The Indiana Congress Parent Teachers; Indiana Auxiliary American Legion, and the Business and Professional Women.

Two hundred women attended the annual mid-winter council forum in February. The Theme, "What Can I Do." On the afternoon program, Mrs. Lykins and Mrs. Allen presented the state chairmen and the district presidents in a "quiz." Mrs. Jaqua led the discussion of defense committees.

I prepared an outline for the program booklet; a page in the Indiana Club Woman Magazine; Have spoken on "forums" at one district and four county council meetings. Conducted a Forum on Defense at Fourth District convention. Have sent out more than three hundred forums to club and county presidents. Prepared two forums on "defense subjects," one on Motion pictures, one on "elections." Prepared a forum outline for district and county conventions. Have furnished, upon request, more than four hundred copies of the forum, "Why We Federate" to other states. This forum was prepared during my term as second vice-president.

The American Home Department was featured at a Forum at Bethany Park in July. Also reports of the Golden Jubilee G. F. W. C. convention were presented in forum. Religion in the Home, Family Relations, What Religion Means to the Home and to the Individual, and America Must Stand for the Free Way of Life, prepared by Mrs. Shirley Gunnels have been the most in demand from this office. More than 1,500 defense forums have been reported. Many counties have reported 100% in forums. Thirteen District reports 100% forums for the year, which means every club held one or more forums.

World conditions, Defense topics and Return to Religion programs have given the forum a prominent place on club and convention programs.

Some one has said, "forget what you have done for others and remember what they have done for you," and I am sure that club women will remember what forums have done for them and continue "through intelligent discussions" to develop their own power and capacity to make their own decisions.

HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

MRS. FREDERICK G. BALZ, Chairman, Indianapolis

All historical material now in the hands of the chairman has been classified, listed and filed for safekeeping and for future use.

Copies of the issues of the Clubwoman and of the Year Book for the past year, have been added, along with letters written to Mrs. Balz, as president, while compilation of the Indiana Federation History went forward, by all then living past presidents of the old Indiana Union of Clubs and of the Indiana Federation of Clubs. These are letters of value since they carry up to date information upon these pioneer club women who made history in Indiana.

A copy of the book, The Old Fauntleroy Home, published by the New Harmony Memorial Commission, has also been added. Historical data has been given to the General Federation of Women's Clubs, to three state federations, and to the Indiana State Library by this committee.

I. F. C. HISTORY SALES

MRS. J. M. THISTLETHWAITE, Chairman, Sheridan

Submitting report of History Sales by Districts:

First District (2)	$ 2.00
Second District (none)	.00
Third District (none)	.00
Fourth District (3)	3.00
Fifth District (no report)	.00
Sixth District (4)	4.00
Seventh District (1)	1.00
Eighth District (5)	5.00
Ninth District (7)	7.00
Tenth District (8)	8.00
Eleventh District (15)	15.00
Twelfth District (6)	6.00
Thirteenth District (1)	1.00
Sold by Mrs. Howarth at State Convention (8)	8.00
Total sold (60)	$60.00

Considering the time and the handicaps in pushing History Sales, this is a favorable report. Every district chairman from whom I received a report said, their club women were so submerged in "History in the Making," that it was very hard to make a sale of these books. But we do recommend that all club women see that this "History of the Indiana Federation," is in every library in our state.

Prizes for most sales by districts went, first to the Eleventh, second to the Tenth, third to the Ninth.

MOTION PICTURE

Mrs. Ferd Lucas, Chairman, Greencastle

Indiana women were among the first to start educational work for Better Motion Pictures. Club interest in this has grown by leaps and bounds. It is impossible to report what each District and County is doing. The educational value of Motion Pictures has been demonstrated in Army Camps, not only as entertainment but to instruct in army training, handling guns, tanks, as "Tanks Are Coming" and the Disney shorts for training the Navy Lookouts to distinguish different ships by silhouette. Many Film Chairmen report these Defense Shorts on every program. Historical Shorts are also used, one on each month in Indianapolis Neighborhood Houses. Exhibitors have also given matinees with French Films for classes in Colleges and for High School students.

Pre-screenings of coming pictures are given to many Film Councils. Fort Wayne women broadcast lists of the best pictures showing weekly, working with the Indorsers of Photo-Plays, as in other places.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

In Gary, the district Film Chairman arranged a broadcast and discussion on pictures, which proved a great success. In the Seventh District, Indianapolis women were invited to Shortridge High School for a Film Discussion with teachers and pupils.

Dr. Irwin S. Deer has been an invaluable speaker before many club institutes in Indiana—(Dr. Deer is western representative from the Hays office).

Many clubs report having programs during the year on Motion Pictures, many report answering roll call with the names of outstanding pictures. In one county "All That Money Can Buy" was used as a club benefit and the $58 cleared was used for purchase of a Defense Bond. One exhibitor gave a special matinee for English students on Shaw's "Major Barbara."

In starting the year's work, I asked the Public Relations Office in Hollywood to send each district chairman in Indiana Motion picture material each month. Mrs. Winters has graciously complied with this request. One chairman writes "such a wealth of information as they receive." Other sources of information are: Good Housekeeping Institute's Bulletin on Motion Pictures; Bulletin of Southern California Council of Church Women; Bulletin of National Board of Review; D. A. R. weekly cards from Mrs. Russell in Hollywood, H. Citizen-News; National Legion of Decency; Bulletin of Indiana Indorsers of Photo-Plays.

Each month I have contacted my District chairman with information on Outstanding Movies—asking them to boost these; also the many Defense shorts, as well as outstanding pictures.

In the Fifth District, our clubwomen interested in pictures are invited to meet with the Greencastle Indorsers of Photo-Plays, where coming pictures are discussed and classified according to pre-view reports, lists of local bookings are hung in our city libraries, and placed on the billboard in the High Schools. Many schools have their own Movie machines and rent films from Indiana University.

In Vigo county, the Film Chairman asks clubs to boost outstanding pictures.

Many chairmen report family pictures shown on Friday and Saturday nights. Pictures have steadily grown better each year—before the influence of Women's Clubs and Indorsers of Photo-Plays was felt pictures like "One Foot In Heaven" could not possibly have been box office successes.

It has been a pleasure to work with a group of women who are so enthusiastic as our District and County Film Chairmen are.

JUNIOR CLUBWOMEN

Mrs. George R. Dillinger, Chairman, French Lick

It is with pride that I give the report of our Junior Clubwomen. Through their programs and work they are carrying out the Federation ideals and the Department objectives.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Many and varied are their projects such as, establishing a library in a home for girls, purchasing a wheel chair for a crippled girl, sending flowers and messages of cheer to the sick in hospitals, publishing a club newspaper, giving forums over the radio, giving benefit dances, helping with Girl Scout Troops and Recreational centers, furnishing hospital rooms, giving money to children's hospitals, etc. Space will not permit me to enumerate more. However, this gives an idea of what they are doing. The girls also contribute to the regular drives such as the Red Cross, T. B., Cancer, etc. Since war has been declared, our Juniors have done a fine piece of work helping with the sale of Defense Bonds and Stamps. One club alone has bought or has been influential in the purchasing of $2,625.00 of Defense Bonds. Other clubs have sold as many as $1,000.00 worth of bonds. Many of the clubs have enlisted their entire membership in First Aid Classes for the Red Cross. The girls have also been knitting and sewing for the Red Cross, helping with the Defense Councils and with the salvage drives. The Juniors are certainly doing their share of the War Work.

Their programs this year showed a definite interest in and appreciation of their heritage as citizens of these United States. The Tri Chi Club of Winamac won first prize in the Star Program Building Contest for their program on Mothercraft. The Delta Sigma Tau also of Winamac won second in the Junior class. Their program was on "America First."

The Juniors held their sixth Annual Conference the second day of the convention at French Lick. At the morning council meeting much rich information was gleaned from the speakers. Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, General Federation President and Mrs. H. C. Houghton, Jr., General Federation Chairman of Education, gave greetings. Mrs. George W. Jaqua spoke on "Juniors and Defense," and Mrs. Harriette K. Sparks on "Program Building for the Victory Contest." Mrs. Harold Zanger, former State Junior Chairman, gave greetings and helped with the discussion. It was decided to continue the two dollar fee per club to the Travel Fund. This is to build up a fund to send a Junior to the General Federation Convention.

Tuesday night the Juniors were honored and representatives from the Districts gave greetings. Not all districts were represented this time but we appreciate the opportunity given us by our gracious President, Mrs. Ahlgren, and hope in the future to make Junior night a night well remembered as it is in the General Federation.

Keeping in mind that judicious and frequent publicity gives strength and prestige to an organization, the writer has endeavored to write articles in such a fashion that they would be of great interest not only to the Indiana Federation of Club membership but to all women.

Every request of the President, Mrs. Oscar A. Ahlgren, and of state officers and chairmen for press notices on Federation activities, programs, plans, events and appointments was fulfilled by supplying the news immediately to the three Indianapolis newspapers and the larger state newspapers which this department services.

Indiana newspapers in the towns of Hammond, Gary, Fort Wayne, Muncie, Terre Haute, Evansville and Richmond are serviced, as is the Louisville, Kentucky Courier-Journal. Recently the Anderson Herald was added to the list by special request of clubwomen in Anderson.

Over fifty stories have been written during the past year, a total of over 500 articles. Major stories included the midsummer Council meeting, the district convention speeches, the unveiling of the plaque in the State House, Civilian Defense and War Service articles, GFWC and Indiana Federation convention programs, and state department chairmen's programs and appeals.

A few stories were received from districts and counties and these were given prompt publicity. One told of the efforts and success of a county federation in purchasing an iron lung.

A number of pictures were arranged for in connection with state board meetings, the blood donations of state officers, the State House plaque and the midsummer State Council meeting.

Letters have been written to all principal speakers for the State Convention requesting copies of addresses and glossy pictures. These will be ready for release at the State Convention.

The chairman has not confined her work entirely to quick service news but has sent much material to Mrs. Harriette Sparkes and Mrs. Susan M. Ostrom of the Star and News respectively so that more widespread notice could be given to club federation activities.

That the publicity has been effective is noted in the increased number of requests for cooperation by state and local officials and organizations.

It has been a source of great joy and satisfaction to the chairman to be able to serve in this capacity. It is a privilege to serve and work with our president, Mrs. Ahlgren, and all the members of the State Federation Board and the organization personnel.

SPECIAL FEATURES

MRS. MARGARET STEPHENSON MOORE, Plainfield

Margaret Stephenson Moore of Plainfield, writing special features for the Indiana Clubwoman, the Indianapolis Star, and other publications, has introduced on state-wide scope the family story, picturing the federation official in her home. This type of feature, begun months before Pearl Harbor, has shown definitely that the moment in time has come when "the hand that rocks the cradle 'serves' the world." It has shown the federation woman, meeting the call to her truest colors with steadfast heart and a determined lift to her chin.

In many talks before club women and before high school and college girls—potential federated members—Mrs. Moore stressed the simple things, often taken for granted, which mean so much in homes, in American communities.

She has been of service to federated groups in arranging press forums, in editing special publications of federated news, and in contributions to daily and weekly newspapers of the state.

Report of the Star's Program Contest for 1941-42

HARRIETTE K. SPARKS, Contest Director

"Interdependence of the Americas," was the major subject selected for the annual program building contest sponsored by The Indianapolis Star. This, because it has been the contest policy to keep pace with current thought trends and to anticipate foreshadowed events. Each year the winning programs have justified this policy.

This year, as in previous years, the winning programs will furnish a background for the building of programs for the coming year. And never has there been a year when such programs furnished a background more suggestive and helpful for program committees than this year. In all the winning programs the American spirit is so dominant that it becomes a rallying cry. All are colored, to an extent, with America's part in the history making events that foreshadowed today's happenings and America's part in today's all around the world war.

One foreshadowed event was the unified group we now call the "United Americas." The winning programs have to do largely with the mutual economic needs of the United States of America and the Latin Americas. The economic needs that have made good neighbors of them—neighbors that borrow and lend with mutual profit. The study outlines also emphasize the need for a unity of purpose and action for the preservation of the inheritances and acquirements the Americas have in common—a democratic spirit and a cultured living standard.

In the lesson learned at Pearl Harbor we find the answer to the query "Along what line shall the 1942-1943 study program be built?" It taught that the greatest defensive and offensive need of the nation is, not only stout hearted soldiers on the battle front, but determined men and women at home who will insist upon a Unified Home Front. This means that study programs for 1942-1943 should be built around a "United We Stand," objective, emphasizing individual responsibility to help secure and maintain a unified home front behind the battle front. To secure it is something; to maintain it is everything. Because of this the suggested subject selected for The Star's 1942-1943 program building contest is, "A Unified Home Front for Victory."

PUBLIC SAFETY

Mrs. G. C. Bowden, Chairman, Bedford

Public Safety in Indiana is of great importance and our Federated club women have done much to make our people more Safety conscious during this club year. Every district and county are alert, helping to reduce accidents. The following list gives an idea of the work done over the state:

Safety has been stressed in all conventions.

We have received much up-to-the-minute Safety literature which was placed with District and County Chairmen. Upon request, every club was supplied with program material.

Safety publicity has been featured in all state and local newspapers, also in the Indiana Clubwoman.

"No Parking" signs have been placed in front of school buildings.

Talks have been given to adult groups, youth organizations, Girl Scouts and 4-H Clubs. In the Eighth District there are one thousand two hundred seventy-nine (1,279) members of 4-H clubs who have studied Public and Home Safety.

Schools have observed Safety Week and Fire Prevention Week.

First Aid and Home Nursing classes have been organized in every community and are very popular.

Radio and newspapers carry advice daily about what to do during air raids and blackouts. Some clubs have joined the National Safety League. They have placed Patrol Boys on School busses.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

The Ninth District did fine work by placing highway markers in dangerous spots. They report one county with a Safety program in every club, organization and school. More safety classes organized in schools. Secured traffic law enforcement by co-operating with Mayors and City officials.

Seventh District sets an example by their splendid programs and press articles. They report fewer fatalities.

District Twelve has continued their educational program of last year for bicycle riders with talks to youngsters. Also gave radio programs on Safety over Station WOWO.

"Accident Prevention" was the theme in the Eleventh District. Pictures and programs helped in this campaign. State police supplied much of the material. Pulaski county placed a map in a prominent down-town office window showing the location of accidents in the county, their causes and results. This created much interest and comment.

Since our rubber supply has become so precious we are giving special attention to the care of our cars, laying emphasis upon the fact that the hazards will be greater because we will be driving older cars with tires used beyond the safety point. Let us remember accidents hinder war production.

As your chairman of Public Safety, I have co-operated fully with State and National Safety Councils, attended Traffic Council meeting, receiving both information and inspiration from speakers on the programs.

Safety In The Home

MAY HOBBS, Tipton, Chairman

"Safety in the Home" has a slightly better record than it had in 1940. Indiana has lowered its high percentage of home accidents in comparison to many other states. Still our accident rate is far too high and we need bend our efforts to make this rate much lower than it now is.

We must realize that Indiana may possibly be in a grave danger zone from bombing on account of our war industries and that we need cooperate with all salvage agencies in ridding our homes, especially attics, of waste materials that are needed for defense and that are fire hazards to us.

We must cooperate with all Civilian Defense agencies and know how to combat fires ignited by incendiary bombs. Replacements in wiring and household equipment make it necessary that we learn more than ever the proper methods of checking what we have for danger hazards.

Records show that an increasing number of our Indiana women are cooperating with the Red Cross in taking the First Aid courses offered. Are you one that has taken a course or have enrolled for one? If not won't you take advantage at once of such a course?

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

Our special outline giving suggestions for Home Safety was compiled and sent out to Safety chairmen and club presidents in early summer and additional suggestions sent out in January and reports indicate that our district, county and club chairmen have been active in passing these suggestions on down to the individual members. Reports are hard to secure but some excellent ones have come from the First, Fourth, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth districts and we feel sure that excellent work has been done in all.

Fire hazards from old clothing, paper, and various other articles stored in attics are certainly at a new low in Indiana as we receive reports of campaigns conducted by clubs and by their cooperation with other agencies such as Boy Scouts, school and Red Cross. Yet the campaign is not completed and let us not relax our efforts until it is finished 100%.

One county has surveyed all home accidents and another has done the same and made pictures of those that could have been prevented and placed same in a prominent place in an uptown building. One county has conducted a campaign for funds and purchased an inhalator for their hospital. Numerous reports come in of cooperation with Safety programs in schools and in Clean Up Week and Fire Prevention Week. Newspaper articles have been printed, talks given to clubs, institutes held and radio programs put on the air.

The coming year will see far closer cooperation between the U. S. Government, our State Civilian Defense organization and the National Defense Council and far more effective and drastic measures taken to decrease home accidents. Let us be ready to cooperate, be alert and meet the challenge they give to us.

RADIO EDUCATION

Mrs. Farra L. Botkin, Chairman, Muncie

The club year for Radio Broadcasting and Radio Education study has included talks given by the members, institutes, musical programs and scripts from the General Federation Headquarters in Washington, D. C., from the Treasury Department and the Women's Division of the Defense Savings Staff, U. S. Treasury in Washington, D. C.

The theme for this year was the American Home and National Defense.

There are many Radio programs which are of great interest to the clubs and whether listened to in groups or singly each state, district and county chairman of Department work in the I. F. C. should compile her own special list of Radio programs before the club year starts if possible. Radio is a means of Adult Education and should be used as such by club members.

Our Radio Education is conducted along two lines. One line is the study of Radio by the club members, during club meetings, roll call responses and current events in Radio.

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

The other line is the broadcasting of programs written and given by club women as a community service, on local broadcasting stations.

The 1941-1942 Radio report for Indiana club women follows by districts:

District One—No report from Chairman. However the Radio station "Evansville on the Air" replied that they would be glad to arrange a time for Club Radio Broadcasts.

District Two—No report on the Radio chairman on broadcasts on WAOV.

District Four—Two clubs gave fifteen minute responses on Radio Education for fifteen meetings, making thirty periods of study.

District Five—No report from WBOW broadcasts.

District Seven—The broadcasts in this district were reported as follows: The Broadcasts were called "Of Women, By Women, For Women." Station WFBM—five broadcasts, on Citizenship, Federation Work, Bible Literature, Consumer Buying in the War Time, Activities of Women in Civilian Defense. Station WIRE—three broadcasts, on Patriotic Music, Interview on Army, Navy and Marine Service Men's Clubs, Law Enforcement and the Citizen's Duty. Station WISH—Interview on Red Cross Organization, Junior Club Work, Spiritual Guidance and Family Relationships, Federation Family in this District, Civilian Defense Work for Federation Women. WIBC—eight broadcasts of Federation chorus, of fifteen minutes each. Many other broadcasts have been given by Federation women on these stations on Defense and Federation.

District Eight—A year round broadcasting—The American Home and National Defense, by Muncie Federation women. Station WLBC—Education, six programs—fifteen minutes each period. American Citizenship—six programs—fifteen minutes. Mothercraft, two programs, Poetry—four programs. Music—twenty-three programs, Drama—two programs. Literature—two programs, Public Welfare, three programs. Family Relationship—two programs, total of fifty-two. WHBU Station Anderson refused time for local club women to talk on local subjects.

District Nine—WDAN—Danville, Illinois, carried the Federation program entitled—"Indiana Air Federation." Time 1:45 p. m. alternate Wednesdays. Fountain County clubs and Montgomery County clubs have given twenty programs, one program on Conservation; Hamilton County clubs had two Radio Education programs in club meetings, one club had three minute response on Radio Education at each meeting, fifteen meetings. WISH Station—Two programs on the A. A. A. and School Lunches. WKMO—Station, Kokomo's new station, Howard County clubs conducted five, fifteen minute broadcasts. Tipton County clubs gave a report that five clubs used Radio programs at each meeting, also one program "Radio in National Defense" by Kempton Study Club.

District Ten—WIND Gary, no report from Club Radio Chairman. In reply to your chairman's inquiry concerning this, the Program Director of WIND wrote that the station had given generously of the time to Federated Clubs, the broadcasts had been scheduled for alternate Thursday at 8:35 a. m. So that would mean about sixteen broadcasts. WBAA—Purdue Station carried Federation programs each Thursday at 11:00 a. m. Five programs on Music, Violin and piano. Three Poetry, original work and other poems. Eleven on Defense, different phases. Two on Federation; two on Conservation. Four on Education, one play written by club women. Three on Legislation, two on Public Welfare; two on International Relations; one by Federation of Church Women; one by Indiana Defense Council.

District Eleven—Blackford County reports two programs on Radio Education by Research Club. WISH—Station at the Fairgrounds carried two broadcasts by the Madrigal Club during the State Fair. WKMO—Kokomo Station carried one musical program of Indiana composers. Several clubs had Radio Education responses.

District Twelve—No programs of Radio Education reported. Upon inquiry of your chairman the program director of WOWO—Fort Wayne Radio Station replied that the General Federation programs had been carried for the benefit of Indiana women. That the station staff could not prepare the scripts, get the participants together and carry the brunt of the Federation programs. Our women must prepare the programs and that the station could not add any more Defense programs, their program is overcrowded with Defense programs. The Director would be glad to arrange Federation broadcasts.

District Thirteen—No report.

The Radio Education Division Chairman extends appreciation and gratitude to those district chairmen who have made this year's report worthwhile. To the Indiana Radio Broadcasting Stations we are deeply grateful for the time extended to our Club women and for the courtesy of the staff during our Broadcasts. The Radio Education Committee extends good will to each club in the thirteen districts and hopes for another year of activity.

RECIPROCITY COMMITTEE

MRS. ROBERT E. BURKE, Chairman

Indiana University Extension Division

If possible this committee is more valuable to the Federation now than ever before, since the need is greater for authentic and "last minute" information about the various new developments and rapid changes going on all over the world in practically every country, and in many fields of thought and endeavor. This information is available to clubs and individuals from the State Library through the local libraries; from General Federation headquarters; and from Indiana University Extension Division which furnishes without fee, package libraries of clippings, outlines, and advisory service in regard to club programs. The Reciprocity Committee, state, district, and county chairmen, by letter, post card, telephone, and newspaper items, tell club women of the Federated clubs of these sources from which printed matter may be borrowed. According to the reports received, the district and county chairmen of the Second, Fourth, Seventh, Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh and Thirteenth Districts carried on the work by means of an aggregate of 874 communications, 49 talks, and an attendance at 65 conventions. They reached an estimated total of 6608 persons. Mrs. Harry Van-Valkenburg, chairman of the Reciprocity Committee of the Tenth District is completing her 13th year of service to the committee and submitted a 100% report.

The State Chairman reports 130 letters written, 428 Indiana University Extension Division Bulletins and 1592 mimeographed sheets distributed. She submitted five articles of timely program suggestions for the Indiana Club Woman, and attended two State Board meetings, the state council meeting, and the State Convention.

The Director of the Package Library Service of Indiana University Extension Division estimates that during the year 6643 club women were served by package libraries, 1791 by club study outlines, 4771 by plays, 470 by personal letter or special service—a total of 13,675 club women served in these different ways. The Secretary of the Visual Instruction Bureau reports that six clubs borrowed eight travelling art exhibits, and twelve clubs used twenty-seven sets of slides and twenty-three clubs used thirty-four motion picture reels; fifty-three flags were used by five clubs, and twenty-one pairs of dolls by eleven clubs.

URBAN-RURAL CO-OPERATION

MRS. DEMPSEY WEBB, Poseyville, Chairman

The topics in the Urban-Rural Co-operation outline are not sponsored by the Federation of Women's Clubs, but these topics are whole heartedly endorsed by our Federation. Many of our Women belong to these organizations and help to bring about a unity which is called Urban-Rural Co-operation.

Your chairman has received excellent reports from many districts and has learned that:

1. Every county in the state has a Farm Bureau organization to which men and women belong.

2. There are 124 "Future Farmers of America" groups, with the National president, Erwin Schenk, living near Evansville, Indiana.

3. 86 Rural Youth Groups.

4. 2731 4-H Boys and Girls.

5. 1717 Home Economics Clubs and 70 Home Economic Chorus organizations.

6. 51 Home Demonstration Agents, 91 Agricultural Agents.

7. 88 AAA Women.

MEMORIAL HOUR

Conducted by Mrs. E. C. Rumpler

"Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

"Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever Thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, Thou art God.

"Thou turnest man to destruction and sayest, 'Return, ye children of men.' For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past and as a watch in the night.

"Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep; in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

"In the morning it flourisheth and groweth up, in the evening it is cut down and withereth.

"So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. And let the beauty of the Lord be upon us; and establish Thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it."

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

"He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters.

"He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

"Yea, though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

"Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

"Sunset and evening star

And one clear call for me

And may there be no moaning of the bar

When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,

Too full for sound or foam,

When that which drew from out the boundless deep

Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell

And after that, the dark!

And may there be no sadness of farewell

When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place

The flood may bear me far

I hope to see my pilot face to face,

When I have crossed the bar."

THE INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

"I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."

At each convention we pause for a while to pay tribute to the memory of those gentle souls who, through the years, have served the Indiana Federation of Clubs in varying capacities. Their devotion to their tasks, their capacity for friendship, their untiring energy, their gracious personalities, their glorious fellowship in service pass in review before us in this hour of remembrance.

We are constrained to speak this simple word of appreciation. These have lived nobly and served faithfully. The world has been enriched because they have been a part of it.

Death has come very close to the Federation during the past year. These are they, who have passed from the realm of time to the habitation of eternity. We trust they have found a better country.

Two organizations merged to form the Indiana Federation of Clubs, the Indiana Union of Literary Clubs and the Indiana Federation of Women's Clubs. The Federation has honored the past presidents of both of these organizations.

Professor J. B. Wisely of Terre Haute was the only man to serve as president of the Indiana Union so we honor him today. A teacher, a literary gentleman of no mean attainment, he contributed much to the work of the early organization.

Mrs. J. S. McFaddin of Rockville, a past first vice-president of the Federation, was an untiring worker for the projects sponsored by the women of Indiana. Her gracious personality will be remembered for long by those who knew and admired her.

Mrs. Hazel Agnew Dilts, the second third vice-president to assume the task of leading the Juniors, slipped from life just when life seemed to be filled with hope and happiness for her. The lovely babe whose entrance into life cost the life of the young mother received care from other hands. So young, so capable and so filled with enthusiasm for living she has found another opportunity to use her talents in the land beyond the sky, we must believe.

Miss Louise Klingler, past president of the Fifth District and a past trustee of the State Federation, was the embodiment of faithfulness to every duty. Her care for the business of the Federation was meticulous in every particular. The success of her administration of the financial interests of the Federation marks an epoch in our history.

Mrs. T. H. Norman, past president of the thirteenth district, held her word of promise a sacred trust. She came to act as chairman of the credential committee for the state convention three weeks after the sudden passing of her husband, because "she had promised." She will not soon be forgotten.

Mrs. E. W. Barrett had a long service record in the Federation. County president, eighth district president, chairman of Conservation for the state; and chairman of the local committee for the 1921 convention at Muncie are but a few of the tasks which she did so well and so cheerfully. She was a real club-woman who lived for those who "loved her and those who knew her true."

Miss Mary Broderick, past president of Parke county, gave a full measure of devotion to her constituent clubs and through building up her county federation she made an immeasurable contribution to her district and state.

These all died in the faith and they dwell now, in the city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

I shall close with the reading of a poem by John Ragsdale, a young college student who seems to have sensed the meaning of a life well lived and recorded it for us. The poem is as yet unpublished and is entitled "Life."

*"The earth is God's dominion, and Life is but a gift.
A toy God gives all men to play with:
Some men become dissatisfied with the toy
And abuse it, and smash it, and crush Life and destroy themselves
In the broken fragments of the toy.
Some men never learn the knack of the toy, (For the toy of life requires a knack a skill to handle and to play with.)
And these men die very bitter and unsatisfied and bewildered deaths.
And some men take the toy with strong hands and warm hearts and powerful souls.
And they learn the toy and its wonderful features and they enjoy it;
They live and fight and work hard and love fervently and deeply;
These bring forth children eager to learn the way of Life.
And these men lay down the toy in peace, as a happy, weary child
Lays down its toys at eventide and seeks the soothing quietness of sleep,
And they retire, satisfied with the rich pleasures which Life has offered them.
With ten thousand memories and reminiscences
They retire to dream of a new day."*

Mrs. Oscar Brizius, of Newburgh, sang the Lord's Prayer by Mallotte.

OUR COUNTRY

The "do or die" spirit of American men and women has made our Nation one of the greatest of all—for a Nation is made great, not by its resources, but by the men and women who have cultivated those resources. America was a great land when Columbus discovered it; Americans have made it a great Nation. Their courage is woven into the red, their love of liberty into the white and their loyalty into the blue of our flag.

The Institution of Life Insurance was builded of that courage, liberty and loyalty and the officers of Peoples Life carry those traditions ever in mind. The company is one of the progressive old line companies of the country; operates under the very strict insurance law of the State of Indiana, which law demands the actual security be held in trust by the State, thus guaranteeing that every policy will always be worth one hundred cents on the dollar.

You will especially want to investigate our—READJUSTMENT POLICY which provides a monthly income of $100.00, or more, per month for one year after death of the insured, or the FAMILY INCOME POLICY which provides DOUBLE PROTECTION while the family is growing up.

These are the best of policies.

THE MOST IMPORTANT INVESTMENT TODAY

This is the year of the family.

The family's interests assume first place—the individual's wants and desires must yield.

Every purchase or investment must be considered in the light of the family benefit.

No parent will deny the fact that education is a family matter of prime importance.

For parents, like Janus, must look two ways at once. They see the difficulties of the present but they see far more clearly the future days when their sons and daughters will step into their proper places as educated, cultured men and women.

Thrift—necessary and estimable today—must, like every other human motive, be wisely directed. But sometimes lack of courage hides under the cloak of thrift. Real thrift means wise spending.

It recognizes the necessity of providing the best education at the proper time.

Today most schools are co-operating with parents in adjusting expenses to income. Means of financing tuition over the school years are being developed.

Parents who know the great benefits of intelligent and adequate preparatory education will make any necessary savings in other ways to keep their children in good schools.
